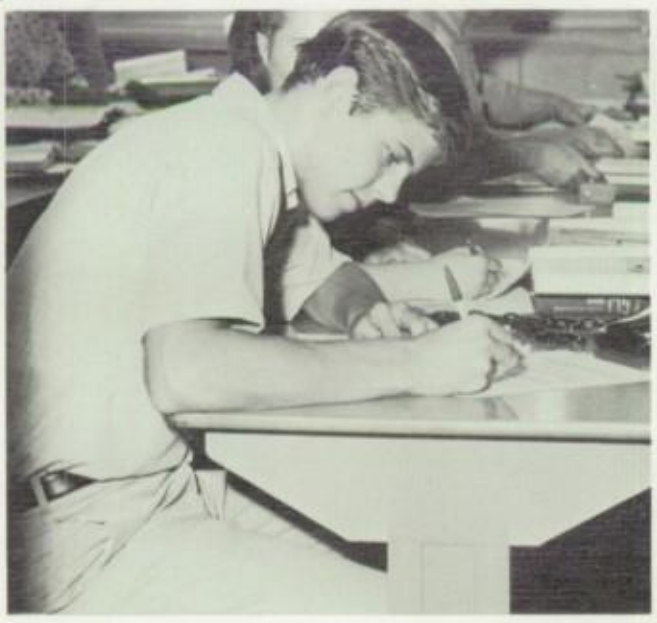
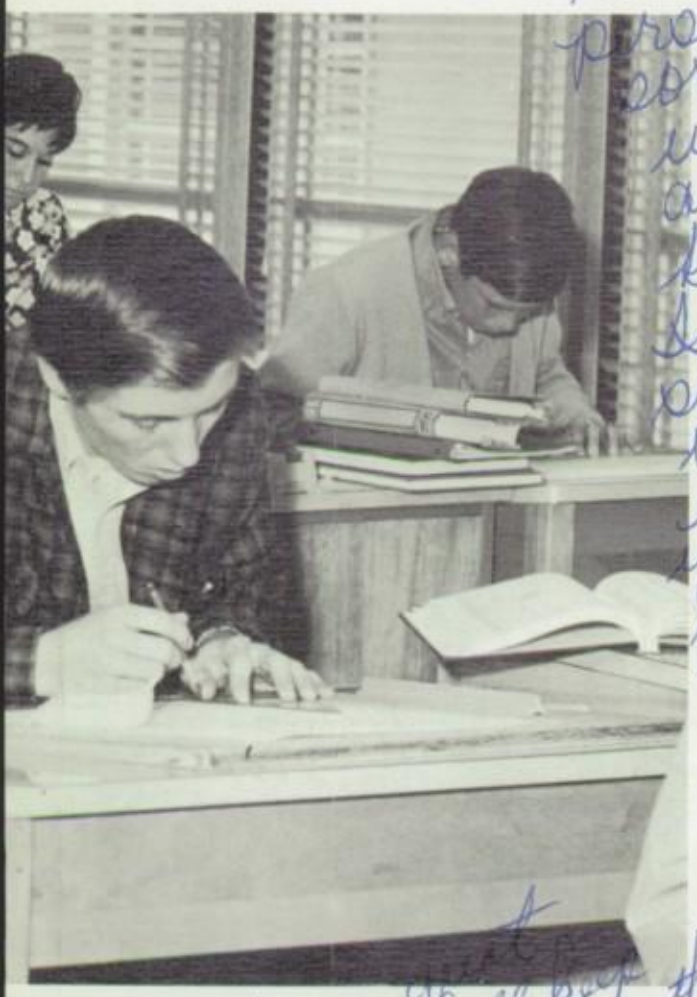
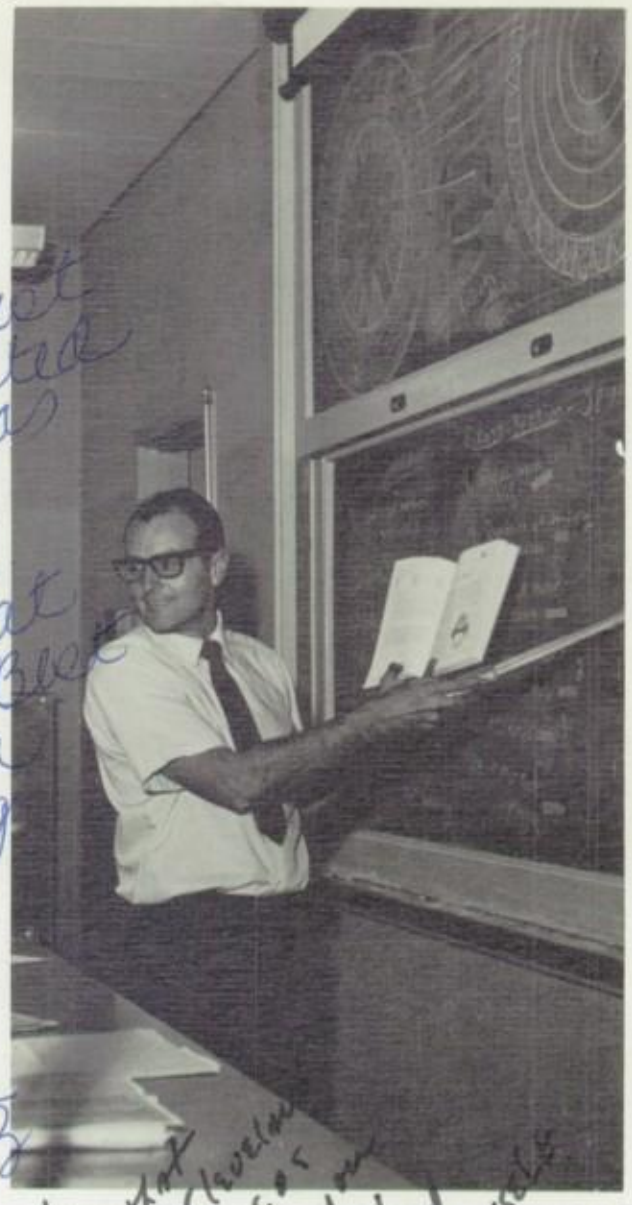
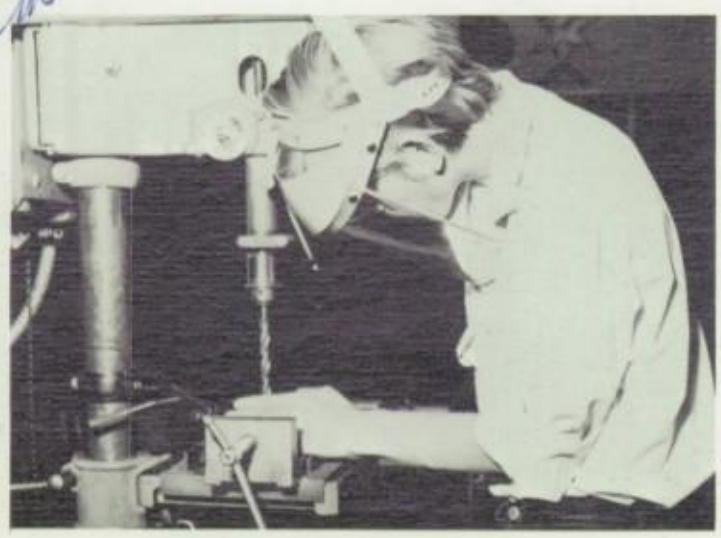
Steps Toward



Destiny







In our first decade
the image of our goals has been established,
We join in the search
for knowledge and integrity,
We become the object of our inquiries,
Each individual strives to achieve the quest of being a Cavalier.
The memories of past experiences will lead us into the future,
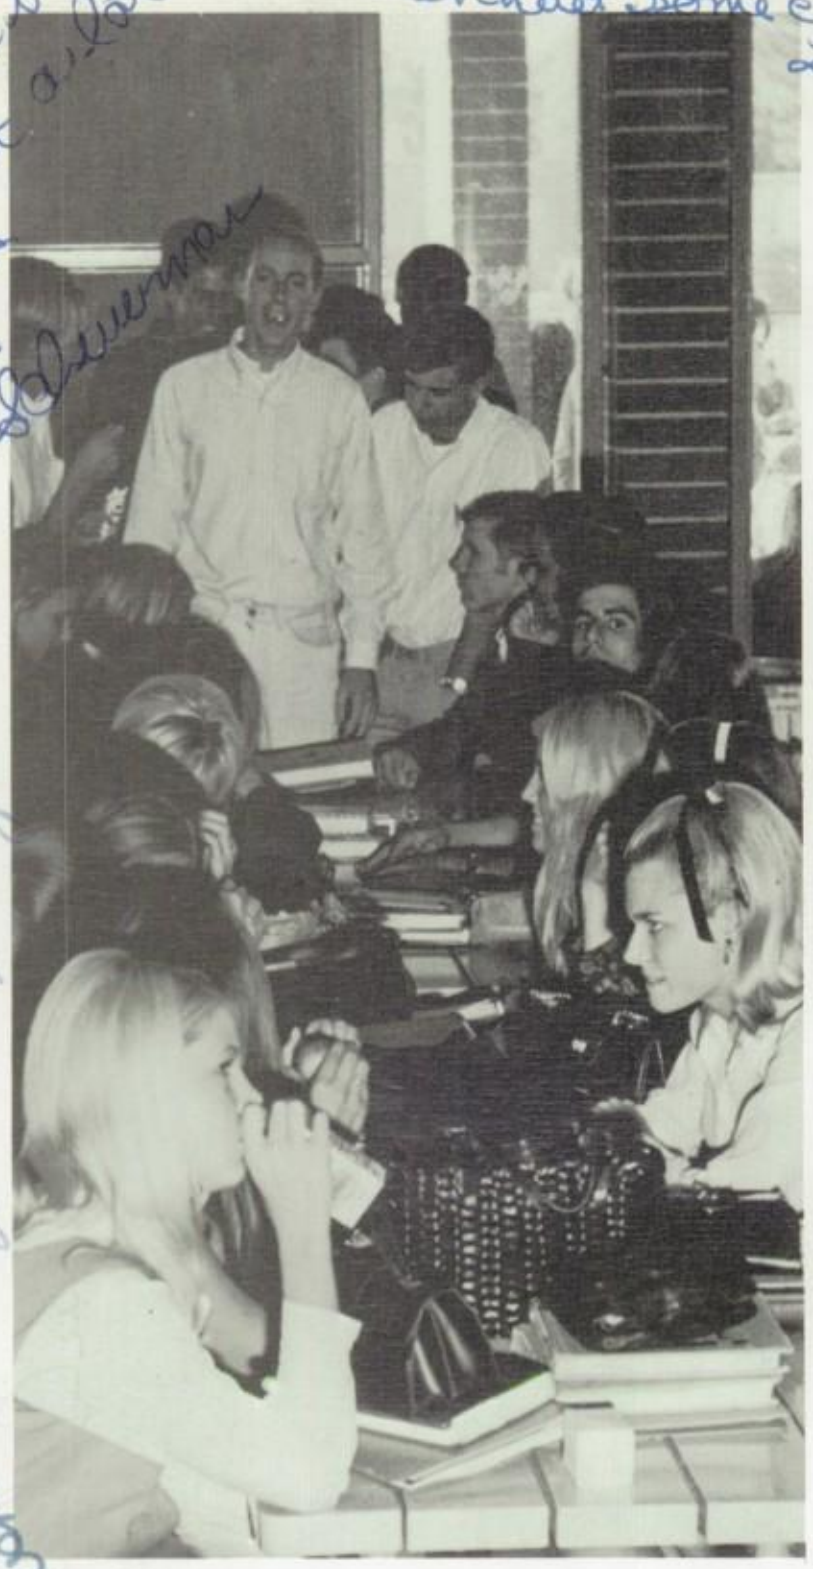
As we become what we learn.

Relaxation



Routs Routine

We develop through relationships,
promoted by our interests and friendships,
As we unite to enjoy the process of achievement.

Bye Ted! It was nice knowing you... have fun in the marines (HA) - I think you'll like it after a while.. don't get too frustrated... and whatever you do, don't give up architecture

Bye now,

Loretta Brunner

SOCIETY

Winning Isn't Everything -But Wanting To Is

A spark . . .
Becomes a flame,
Kindling and encompassing all.
The whispered ideal becomes a visible goal,
As each conquest brings the reality of supremacy closer.
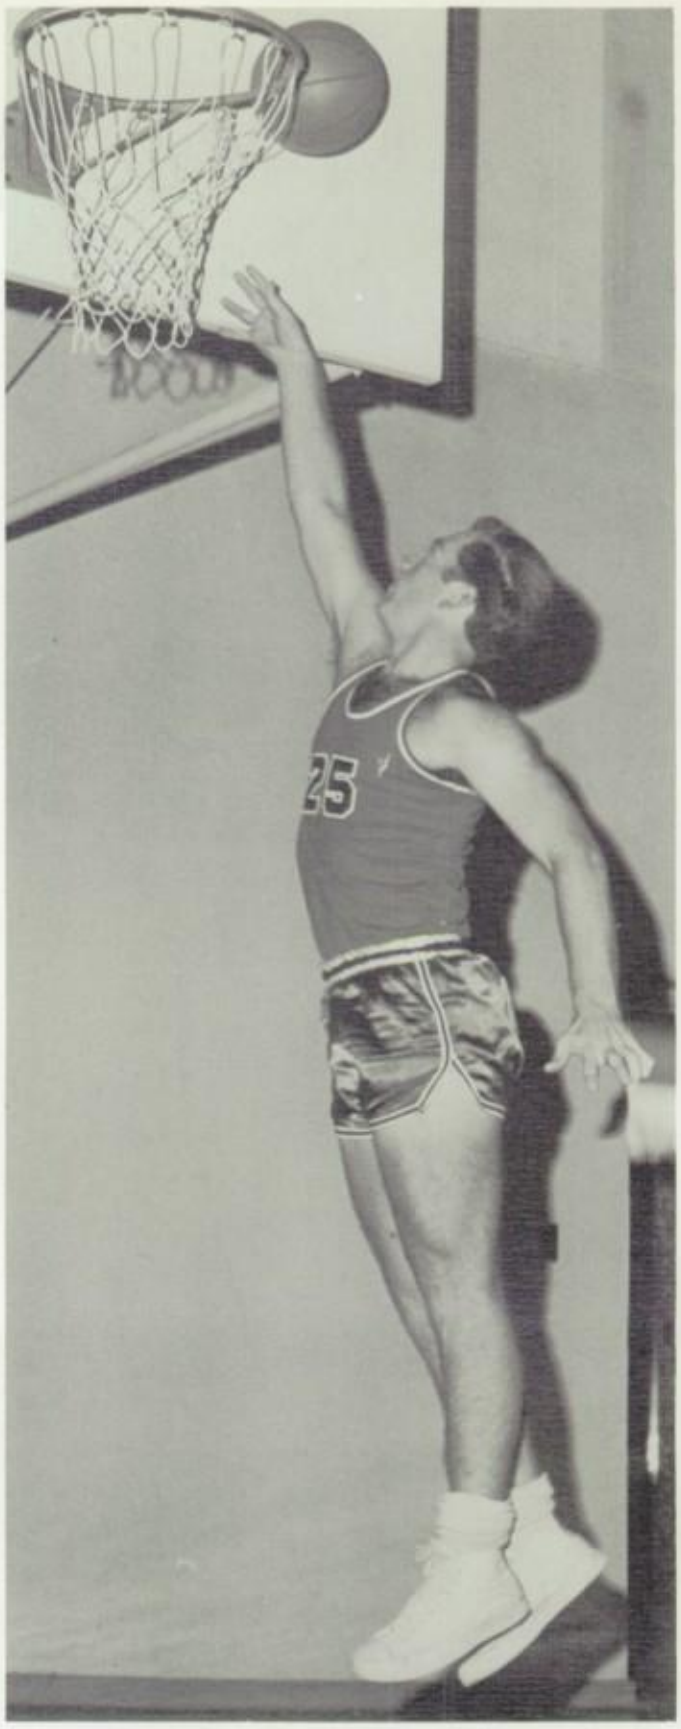
In our individual ways we contribute,
As the momentum of our spirit builds,
And is reflected in the thousand glowing faces,
Lighting the darkness of the stadium.

Leal:
Best of luck in the future. I know that a fellow Valley Athlete will go a long ways, see you later,
Don Clark.

A Vision of Victory at Last Within Reach



At the onset of each new challenge we meet;
Skill is our guideword.
The singular quest for recognition becomes the embodiment of the team.
We taste the thrill of victory;
Surpass the agony of defeat;
And meet with a new resolve:
To mirror our achievements to all.

Manifestations of SOUL!

Ted -
Congratulations on your trophy and I hope you have continued success through out your life
Good Luck

New Senior B Sweaters To Be Revealed Today At Period 4 Assembly

"Harvest Through the Ages [illegible] the Crop" is the theme of the today's Senior B sweater assembly period 4 in the multi-purpose room.

Different periods of history will be presented in music, dancing, and singing.

Judy Johnson and Bill Normand will do a caveman monologue in depicting the era from the beginning of time to the caveman.

Phil O'Donnell will illustrate the classical period of history with a piano solo.

The Westward Movement in American history will be carried out with a Can-Can dance by Chris Cavette, Bob Johns, Bill Normand and Conrad Melton.

Pamm Campbell and Jo-Ann Kilbon will do a dance routine to "Crazy Otto" for the period of the Roaring 20's.

Songs will emphasize the "Age of Empress."

"Only Senior A's and B's will be able to attend the assembly due to limited space," stated Judy Kinman, Senior B class president.

The Senior Field day which is scheduled for this afternoon will give the Senior B's an opportunity to show off their sweaters.

Ray McClave, A-12, and Roy Bird, B-12, have made final plans for a girls' bike race, a boys' three legged race, tug-o-war, an egg

Each semester the graduating class chooses a motto. The theme of the Graduation speeches and the entire graduation itself is co-ordinated around the motto.

Any Senior A who has a good idea for a motto may submit it to the senior sponsor. The Senior A Cabinet then goes over them and narrows the choice down to about six or seven mottos. The Senior A Class then votes, the one with the highest number of votes is the motto.

The Seniors chose as their motto, "We Did Know You Well."

The Ephebian Society is a civic betterment and service organization. Ephebians are selected on the basis of outstanding character, leadership ability, high scholastic achievement, and demonstrated service. The Society's major purpose is to focus the attention of its members upon matters of civic and community leadership, betterment, and service, and to inform and encourage the membership to actively participate along these lines.

One student from each forty, or approximately 2 1/2% from each graduating class, may be chosen as an Ephebian. To qualify scholastically, the candidate must have maintained a B average throughout his senior high school years.

The Les Mémoires staff takes great pride in presenting the Outstanding Seniors of 1968-1969. Each student has been chosen as a representative of outstanding achievement in a specific department or major. Each has given more of himself in his field than his competitor.

Bank Of America Zone Candidates

Liz Harris
Liberal Arts

The Les Mémoires staff is proud to present Cleveland High School's four Bank of America Achievement Award candidates. The purpose of this award is to recognize and to honor outstanding seniors whose scholastic attainment, sense of civic responsibility, and evidence of leadership give most promise of future success and service to society.

The Achievement Awards Program was first introduced to the schools of the Los Angeles City School District in 1948. Cash awards, trophies, and certificates have served to emphasize the value of self-improvement, service to others, and individual achievement.

The awards program has been expanded to include all high schools throughout the state. The state is divided into nine geographical divisions each with an approximately equal number of students. The schools within each division form an independent program and winners do not compete against winners from other programs. The nine divisions are divided into zone areas. Cleveland is a member of the West Valley Zone.

William A. Farmer Service Award

The William A. Farmer awards were originated to recognize two Senior "A" students, preferably one boy and one girl who had contributed outstanding service to Cleveland in at least two fields of service. This award easily distinguishes these individuals from Ephebians since the only grade requirement is a C average. The award was named in honor of Cleveland's first principal and is presented at the senior breakfast.

Sale Sponsored By Student C... Proceeds Go Towards Light ...

Gary Snelson, Student Cabinet president announced plans for a candy sale at Cleveland High. The purpose of the sale is to raise money for the lights on the football field.

Commencing March 20, and terminating April 3, the sale will make its inaugural appearence before Cleveland students.

The candy bars filled with almonds will be distributed to second period teachers who in turn will give their students bars to sell at home. The Student Cabinet, sponsors of the sale, hopes each student will take at least six bars to sell to friends and family.

An award assembly will be given for those students selling a predetermined amount of bars. The assembly, which will host a ... drive.

Humorous Skits Featured At First Christmas Social

By Dennis Cannon

Widney got into the spirit of the holiday season holding its first Christmas Social last Friday including games, square dancing (the only practical dance for wheelchairs) and another jam session with Widney's theatrical combo. Skits put on by each of the four classes, senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman highlighted the event.

The winning class will be announced and will receive a plaque at assembly tomorrow. Of course, the Sophomore Class of which I am a member will be the winner, since I acted in and helped produce the skit. I am the optomistic type.

The Senior Class presented "Murder Under the Christ... boys it will be coats and ties.

Cleveland Clippings, Le Sabre Chosen

Le Sabre is the name of the school newspaper while Cleveland Clippings will be the weekly Green Sheet column.

The Journalism staff wishes to express its appreciation to the 29 students out of more than 1200 who took time and effort to turn in suggestions.

We would also like to give special recognition to Glenn Gordon who suggested the name for the paper and to the person whoever he may be who anonymously suggested the name for the Green Sheet Column.

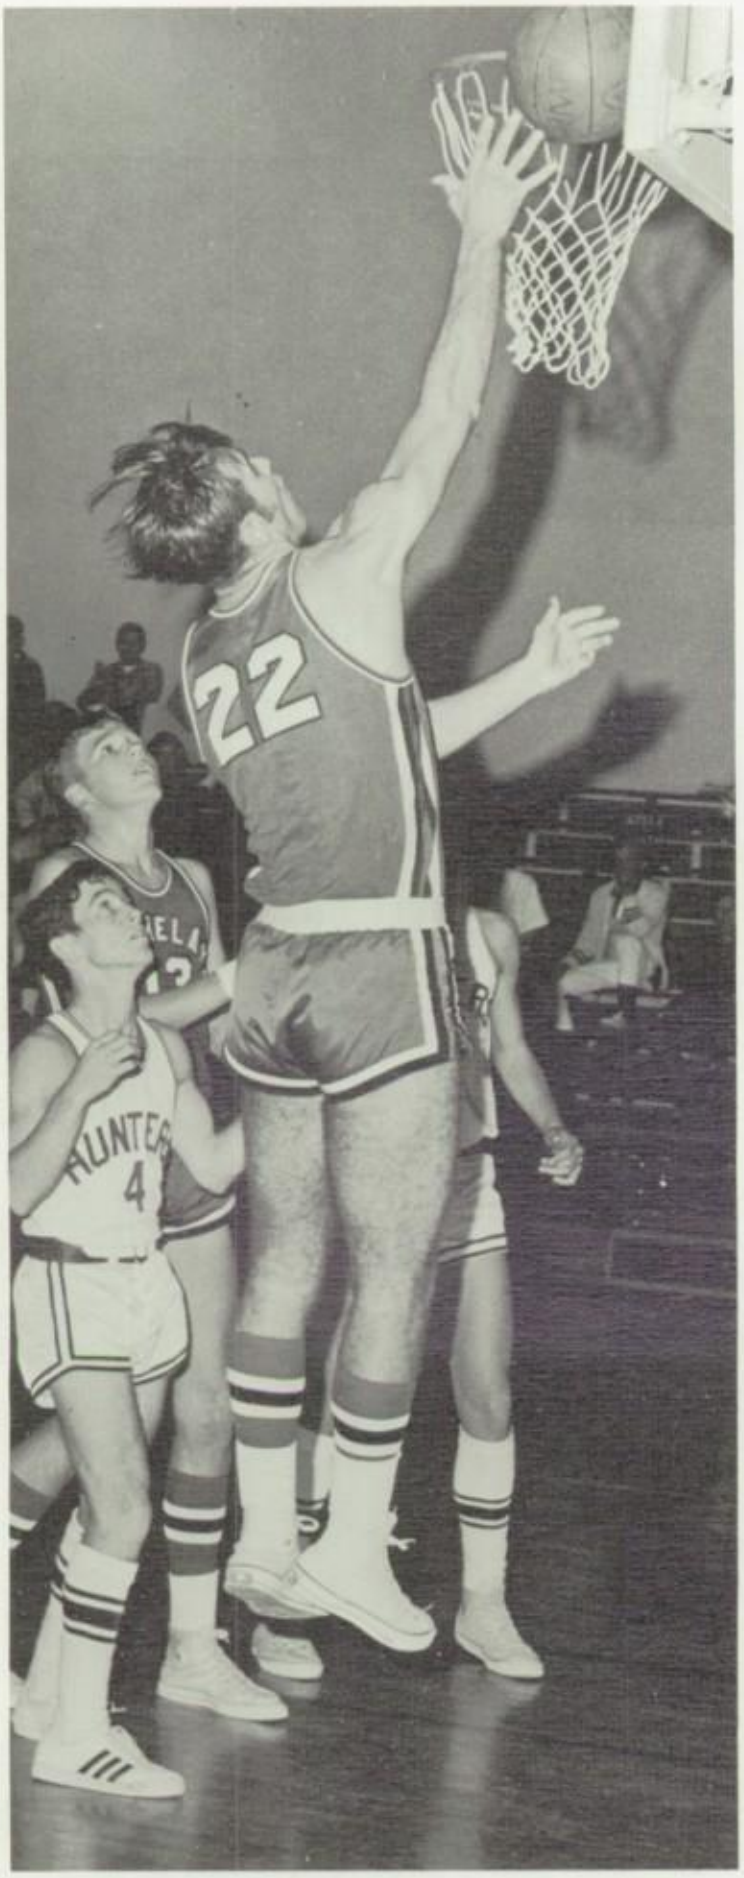
Student Government
Fall 1968



This past semester has been an extremely active one for the student body and Student Cabinet. Cleveland has accomplished so much and made history in the fields of athletics and fund raising events. Our success can only be attributed to the outstanding student body support. I would personally like to thank the Student Cabinet, as well as the student body, for the conscientious efforts they have afforded by planning, organizing, and executing all of your activities.

The interest of your faculty and administration has increased the opportunities and possibilities for student activities. I would especially like to thank Mr. Lee for his willful guidance and philosophy, making Cleveland number one in all areas of endeavor.

High school, an important time in the life of each student, is only as enjoyable as the student makes it by participating in school affairs. I can only say that my past three years at Cleveland have been experiences I will always remember because of the students who gave me the privilege of representing them throughout the community.

House Of Representatives: Words In Action

Color It Spring

Winkie Penix, Girls' League President, Spring 1968, presided over the annual Cotton Day Assembly; her final gesture as President. The ceremony opened with the installation of the newly elected Girls' League officers for Fall, 1968. The flower bedecked senior quad was filled with pretty cotton dresses and sunny springtime smiles. All girl students watched as senior Kathy McNew was crowned Cotton Queen. Her eight lovely maids ranged from Maid of Spirit to Maid of Sincerity. Princesses were chosen from both the 10th and 11th grades. Members of the court were selected on a basis of good grooming, personality, personal achievements and poise.

The announcement of the new Ladies was eagerly awaited by the A-11 girls. Outgoing Ladies pinned their emblem on those thrilled new members chosen for their outstanding service to Cleveland.

Student Government Spring 1969

Campus scenes, teachers, fellow students, friends - these are the high school memories we keep with us always. These remembrances will have a special meaning for me, for in my senior year I had the privelege and honor of becoming Cleveland's first female Student Body President.

Faced with an unbelievable responsibility, the ensuing duties constituted the greatest challenge of my life. I had to learn several things, among them self-confidence and self-control.

Most of all, I've realized the importance of the Student Cabinet at Cleveland and its need for the Student Body's support. Trite as it may sound, student government is only as good as the student body is willing to make it, and this semester I believe we have continued improving the communication between the students and their elected officers.

I would like to formally thank the administrators for all the guidance and help they have given me this past semester. I would especially like to thank Mr. Silverman, our advisor, whose assistance proved invaluable. Most of all, I want to thank my outstanding Cabinet for bearing with me through the laughter, the tears, and the oral bulletins of Spring, 1969.

Reliable Representation

What Color

Is Love?

"Love Is Blue" was the theme of our semi-annual fall Vice Versa, held on the evening of January 10, 1969. D'Artagnan Hall was transformed into an atmosphere of blue gaiety through the efforts of Girls' League members and numerous volunteers.

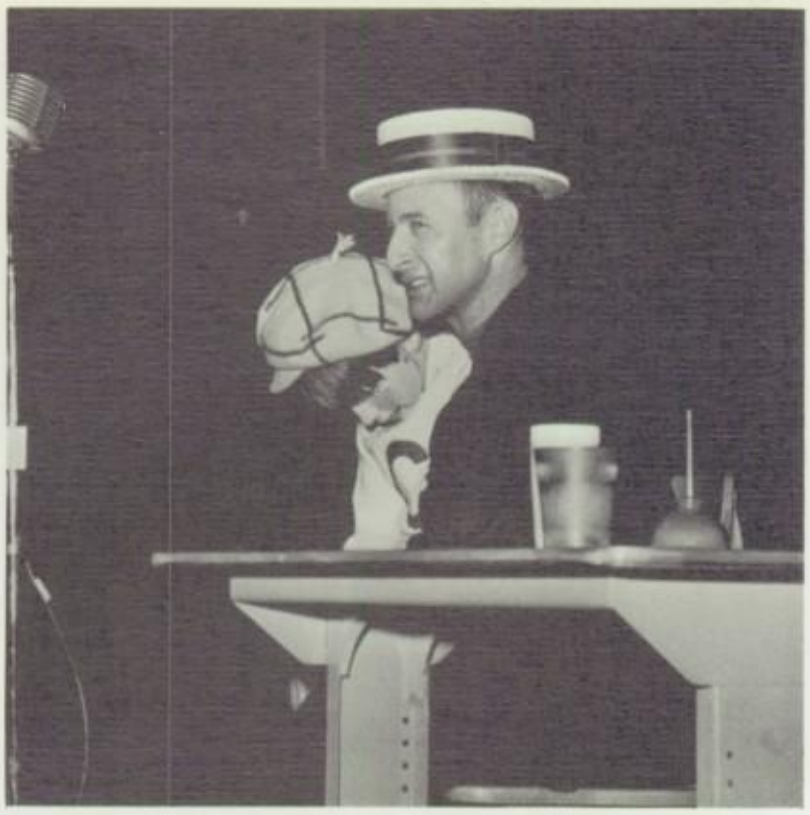
Cavalier girls and their dates, adorned in semi-formal attire, spent the evening dancing to the popular hits of a local group, the Union Jacks.

Then, according to tradition, many couples flocked to their favorite restaurants. In a true Vice Versa spirit, the girls treated their dates to a twilight dinner, climaxing a truly enchanted evening.

Richly Rewarded

Students who purchased their fall activity cards were rewarded by an assembly featuring the new and exciting Hager Twins. They presented a repertoire of folk rock, hard pop music, and country and jazz blues. The two performers were identical twins, and the easiest method of telling them apart was to know that Jim played guitar and John played tambourine. Cleveland was fortunate to have such an entertaining act for its enjoyment.

Highlighting the P.T.A. Reward Assembly was a group of talented high school students who formed one branch of the widely renowned "Up With People" organization. They entertained the Cavaliers with a program of inspirational songs.



Faculty Follies

"Come one, come all, to the biggest hit of the season—the Faculty Follies," shouts Master of Ceremonies Mr. Verity as the lights dim and the show begins. What followed was truly enjoyed by all the students who were lucky enough to attend our Spring Activity Card Assembly on March 12, 1969. We all watched in awe as Longhorn Josephs recited a melancholy ballad while Charly accompanied him on his guitar; and as the quartet of Mr. Tucker, Mr. Coffman, Mr. Brafstein, and Mr. Fisher played a couple of numbers from way back when . . . Then in total disbelief we viewed The Two Tulips, Rosebud and Lily of the Valley (sometimes known as Mrs. Jacobson and Mr. Edwards), as they danced and sang that well-known favorite, "Tip-Toe Through The Tulips." Following this hilarious act, Mr. Coffman, in the form of The Great Babalini, appeared with his dummy, Twitchlips. But the highlight of the whole performance was the appearance of Betsy Bubbles, more commonly known offstage as our faithful principal, Miss Hofer. Upon entering she was greeted by a standing ovation, quite worthy of her outstanding imitation of Shirley Temple singing "On The Good Ship Lollipop."

As a conclusion to this seasonal highlight, the Faculty Follies entered again and sang the closing numbers of "Give My Regards To Broadway" and "There's No Business Like Show Business." This outstanding assembly was all made possible through the efforts of Thespians, under the direction of Miss Francis.

Spirit Soars At Sports Rallies

On Friday, September 20, 1968, we held our first activity of the year: our fall sports rally. Unlike previous semesters, this year all Cavaliers were invited to attend.

Our cross country runners demonstrated their outstanding form by running the quarter-mile around the track. Cavaliers then welcomed our Bee football team and new Coach, Tom Hansen.

Our fabulous Drill Team marched onto the field to form their traditional tunnel from which our highly acclaimed Varsity football team burst forth.

The crowd responded vigorously to the efforts of the fall song and cheerleaders. The enthusiastic atmosphere was attributed to the outstanding prospects for a winning season.

Our Spring sports schedule consists of events in track, gymnastics, swimming, tennis, golf, and baseball. The Cavalier student body attended a preview performance of many of the participating athletes at a rally held on February 14, 1969.

Jim Anderson, Director of Athletics, opened the program by introducing Athletic Coordinator Mr. M. Verity who, after speaking briefly, introduced Phil Yarbrough, head yell leader. After an impressive performance by the spring yell and cheerleaders, Coach D. Preciado presented a humorous commentary on our baseball teams. The other five coaches followed by introducing their teams.

Many demonstrations by our skilled athletes inspired the students to attend all of the events for the spring season. After having such a rewarding fall season, Cleveland's spirits are high for an equally fulfilling semester this spring.

Radiating Royalty Sparkles Homecoming

For the first time in many years, the coronation of homecoming queen took place at halftime on November 8, 1968. Three cars bearing the five candidates for queen, paraded along the track.

Lovely junior, Debby Landon, was escorted down a red carpet, and crowned by last year's queen Cindy Ward. Surrounding her were princesses Sharon Erlich, Sandy Brown, Vikky Smith and Kathi Johnson.

The royalty reigned over a post-game dance held in D'Artagnan Hall.

Cleveland Rocks With Almond Roca

This year, to raise money for our Student Body fund, Cleveland High had an Almond Roca Candy Drive.

A "candy kickoff" assembly, held November 22, 1968, on the football field, acquainted the students with the goals of the drive and also featured the Almond Roca-ettes. As a post-assembly treat, the Varsity football team visited all classes, distributing samples of the delicious candy.

Over the Thanksgiving holidays, Cleveland students invaded the valley, selling their cans of candy. Each student received a ticket for the first case taken out and an additional one for every dollar brought in thereafter. A drawing was held each day at lunch and hundreds of fabulous prizes were awarded to the lucky winners.

At the conclusion of the drive, the student having sold the most candy in each second period class was presented with a handsome transistor radio. Mrs. Keller's class of nineteen pupils is to be congratulated on selling 1176 cans, a fantastic effort on their part.

Finally, on January 15, 1969, the long-awaited reward assembly materialized. Students who had sold at least one case of Almond Roca were guests at an outstanding performance featuring the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. Their good-humored personalities were reflected in their musical renderings and comical antics. The students were treated to a half hour of exceptional bluegrass and folk-rock music. This was really an assembly well worth waiting for.

"Look Homeward Angel"

"Look Homeward Angel", a comedy-drama written by Ketti Frings and based on the novel by Thomas Wolfe, was presented by Cleveland's outstanding drama department on December 12, 13, and 14, 1968. The play, detailing the conflict between Eugene Gant and his domineering mother, follows his struggle to break the ties which bind him to his undesirable family life. This three act drama was one of Cleveland's most memorable presentations. This production was under the supervision of Misa V. Francis.

In the first week of June, 1969, the Cleveland Drama Department transformed Don Appell's literal version of "Milk and Honey" into a delightful treat for Cavaliers and their families. A story of love and friendship, this play was highlighted by an exciting musical score. Many long hours of rehearsal, under the direction of Miss Victoria Francis, proved worthwhile in performances unsurpassed in the history of our dramatic presentations.

"The Birdbath" and The Shakespearian Festival

"The Birdbath" by Lennert Melfi deals with a struggling young poet and his attempts to lead a self-conscious young waitress astray. In competition at the One-Act Festival on March 24, 1969, at Valley Junior College, Pattye Mattick, who played Velma, received the award for best actress of the day. Friday, March 28th, she returned to competition and walked away with the Best Actress of the Week Award. Rick McCurdy gave a great performance as Frankie. The judges were very much impressed with Cleveland's fantastic drama department, again proving their ability.

This year Cleveland co-hosted the 49th Annual Shakespearian Festival held at U.C.L.A. on April 19, 1969. The competition is sponsored by the Drama Teachers' Association of Southern California. Each year the students perform scenes from a tragedy, a comedy, and a history. This semester's selections were "King Lear," "As You Like It," and "Henry VIII." Among Cleveland's many participants were: Noa Bornstein, Carol Christy, Sue Cupito, Dave Farley, Melody LaMontia, Vickie Landers, Blair Levin, Jeff Levin, Barry Lillback, Pattye Mattick, Rick McCurdy, Dave Owen, and Charles Smith.

Also entered into competition were four costumes made by the combined efforts of: Michelle Plamondon, Terry LaRud, Diane Ashley, Sharon Golden, Vickie Van O'Linda, Debbie Silvera, Terri Huse, and Jean Harrison.

Is This A Revolution?

In the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, the GREAT CHANGE came to Grover Cleveland High School. Faculty and students watched in awe as boys started wandering in one day—clad in BERMUDA SHORTS! Then, what about that historic day when not only the boys, but a large portion of the school's female population came strolling into school wearing pants? And, as if that wasn't enough, some of the boys had enough gall to come to school without shaving for ten whole days! Cleveland has certainly seen changes in its Student Body before, but this has got to top all! Just imagine, what next year will bring!

The Return To Tara

The senior prom, the highlight of all senior activities, was special this year. For the first time in Cleveland's history, the Prom was held off campus. On May 10, 1968, the Castaways was transformed into a southern plantation to fit our theme of "Gone With the Wind". Seniors and dates danced, socialized, and ate a delicious dinner to the tunes of a popular orchestra.

The court was named with John Kurtz and Cindy Ward being crowned as King and Queen. The royal couple led the traditional promenade as all joined them in the dance.

"Climb Every Mountain-- 'Til You Find Your Dream"

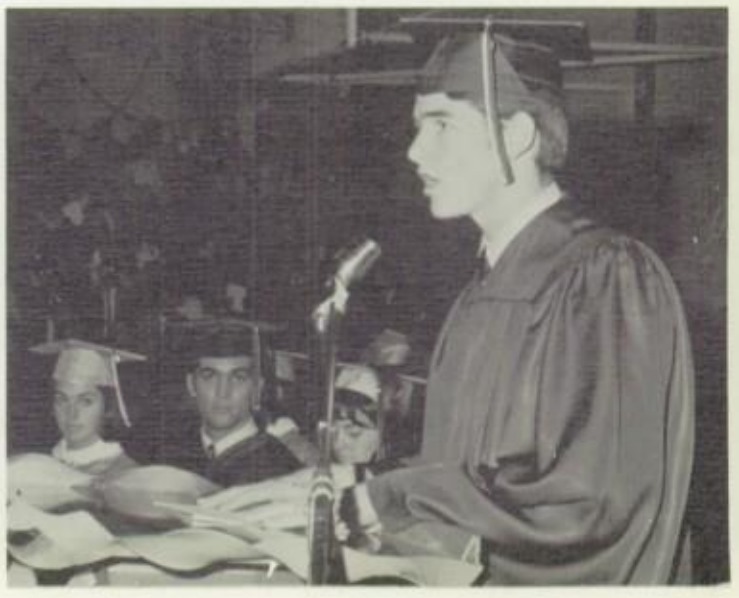
Destiny is not a matter of chance
It is a matter of choice:
It is not a thing to be awaited--
It is a thing to be achieved.

Wm. Jennings Bryan

No man can achieve on his own, and no one could know this better than the high school graduate getting ready to search for his goal in life.

Commencement exercises began for the Maluhians, Class of Winter 1969, on January 31, 1969, when they proudly, yet somewhat solemnly, marched into Vainqueurs Hall to the traditional tune of "Pomp and Circumstance." After the welcome, four outstanding class members delivered speeches concerning the future that lies ahead of them. Then Mr. Josephs, class advisor, made the presentation of the class and Miss Hofer, principal, accepted them. The diplomas were presented to the graduates and then accepted by Rick Landon class president.

As the class sang their school alma mater for the final time, they realized that their search had already begun; the search for their final destination--their dream.



Cavalier Drill Team Rated High In Valley

The Cavalier Drill Team, rated last fall as one of the finest in the Valley, is planning to surpass last season's performance, Newly elected Drill Team president, Marcie Rittmeyer, announced the intentions of the group to top any performance at the recent Drill Team tryouts.

Last Fall's Drill Team under Sharon Sue Eyster, and co-captain Kay Shuman was the best in Cleveland's history. The Drill Team was one of the finest precision groups the Valley has seen. They used many new drill techniques in performing a new type of half-time show with exact precision and synchronization as well as the traditional and previously overused pinwheel formations and routines.

During pre-game ceremonies the Drill Team formed the traditional tunnel for the football player run through in a new way. The result, the straightest tunnels in history.

Miss Marjorie Earnshaw, Drill Team sponsor, stated, "I don't know if the next group can measure up to the last team the finest we have seen at Cleveland. However, one thing is certain, they certainly will try their hardest to."

Tryouts for Drill Team have been held the last two weeks. The making it past the first round were issued out routines. They were given three minutes to learn the routine. Other factors, aside from correct performance, were taken into consideration.

The final list of girls, approximately 30 is made up of highly qualified girls. The difficulty of tryouts and the rigidity of requirements of scholarship and physical fitness make the Cavalier Drill Team a real honor organization.

The new Drill Team will match the best when the halftime announcer states, "Introducing the Cleveland High School marching and dancing Drill Team."

Many Clubs Available To All Cavaliers

There are many clubs and organizations available to interested students at Cleveland High. These clubs and organizations are designed to meet nearly every need.

● Pep Club

Pep Club is one of the largest clubs on campus. It is sponsored by Mr. Ronald Regan. Their purpose is to promote spirit for our teams.

● Junior Boys' Service Club

Yeomen is a club, which was formed for the purpose of serving Cleveland. Its members may be found patrolling the halls at noon.

● Junior Girls' Service Organization

Marquisettes is sponsored by Miss Kathleen Basil. It was formed for the same reasons as Yeomen. The members must have good citizenship and maintain a high grade average.

● Interest Club

The Interest Club, sponsored by Mrs. Anstead and Mrs. Mary Fredricks, was formed for the purpose of creating an interest in foreign lands.

● Knights

Knights, the boys' service organization, is sponsored by Principal William Furman. This boys' organization aids Cleveland in

Club Committee To Coordinate Campus Events

Two bills have recently been passed by the House of Representatives and Cabinet.

The first bill concerns clubs and organizations. A committee made up of presidents or representatives from each club and organization on campus will be formed for the purpose of coodinating campus activities and providing sponsor for various functions.

Cleveland's Organizations Serve School and Students

There are four service organizations at Cleveland High. They are Knights and Ladies, senior organizations, and the Marquisettes and Yeomen, junior organizations. Membership qualifications vary with the different groups, but all require above average grades.

The Ladies organization, under the supervision of Miss Rakestraw, is made up of senior girls who have better than average grades. Recommendations are also necessary. Officers for this semester are Charlee Christian, president; Chris Hoffman, vice president; Sue Bennett, secretary; Chris [illegible], treasurer; and Lee [illegible], historian. 'Glass Menagerie' Thespians Interpret Roles in Coming Play

By Bill Flask

A smash Broadway hit in 1945 and "[illegible]" successful motion picture, "The Glass Menagerie" is considered one of Tennessee Williams's greatest works. And for the thespians who are staging Cleveland's up-coming version, the play is exacting because of the maturity demanded in the roles.

However, Mr. Constantine Thomas, who is directing the production, states his cast is "doing a great job."

The movie starred James Daly as Tom. Stepping into his shoes will be Mike Brown. Mike interprets him as a very realistic character.

Dave Hoskins, Jim in the play, considers his role difficult to play but lots of fun at the same time. Lonnie Chapman played Jim in the movie.

Laura's part was played by Lois Smith. Filling the role in Cleveland's play will be Kris Mundall. Laura is very shy and has only two earthly possesions which are her whole world. They are a glass menagerie and some old phonograph records that her father has left her, according to Kris.

Knights And Ladies

Two groups of seniors to whom Cleveland owes special gratitude for the unselfish service they give to their school are Knights and Ladies. Recognizable by their red sweaters and friendliness, they lend aid by ushering at assemblies and serving as the official hosts and hostesses of Cleveland.

Marquisettes

Key Club

Underclassmen organizations serving the Cleveland campus are Marquisettes and Yeomen. Aside from assisting at football games and dances, they may be found supervising the halls during lunch.

The Key Club, under the direction of Mr. Todd, is Cleveland's newest service club. It offers male Cavaliers the opportunity to become active in both their school and community.

Varsity Club

Sports Club

Athletically, Cavaliers sport genuine enthusiasm. Girls who have been active participants for three semesters in G.A.A. are qualified for Lettergirl membership. As Lettergirls, they serve Cleveland by refereeing G.A.A. sports, selling programs at football games, and working at various athletic meets.

Varsity and Senior Lettermen are eligible for membership in the honorary organization, Varsity Club. These outstanding athletes assist their school by checking for parking stickers at the entrances of the Cavalier parking lot and serving at school banquets.

Students who are interested in skiing and skin diving can appease their athletic appetite by joining Sports Club. In the fall, Cavaliers can participate in Ski Club's program of field trips as well as ski instruction. As spring approaches, interest turns from skiing to skin diving.

Girls' League

Girls are given a say in their affairs by participating in Girls' League. Serving both Cleveland and themselves, members of this fine organization acquaint the administration with the desires and opinions of the female Cavaliers. Girls' League also sponsors numerous functions such as the semi-annual Vice-Versa and other dances.

Once again Girls' League hosted the annual Girls' Week. During this week, girls are given the chance to take on the jobs of community workers. Highlighting Girls' Week was a successful noon sock hop.

Boys' League

Boys' League is an organization offering an ear to the opinions and ideas of Cavalier males. Directed by a Cabinet elected by the student body, they have functioned admirably this year. Bermuda day, a beard growing contest, and numerous other activities have been successfully sponsored by Cleveland's active Boys' League. To climax the years events, Boys' League sponsors Boys' Week. For the week, boys take over and observe the occupations that are important in the community and school.

Thespians

Drama Club

Cultural interests are illustrated by Cavalier participation in four of Cleveland's fine clubs. National Thespians Society and Drama Club explore Theatre Arts. Academy discusses current problems and emphasizes the need for student involvement in these affairs. A more recently formed club is the International Club. Formed as a club to promote universal understanding, students are instilled with a larger scope of foreign culture.

Future Farmers Of America

The Future Farmers of America, by working and competing together, have gained much valuable experience offered outside the class room. Their success is proven in the many ribbons they have captured at fairs, shows, contests, and field days.

The Future Teachers of America have a defined purpose of preparing for future occupations in teaching. Highlights are various guest speakers discussing opportunities in the field of education.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, under the direction of Mr. L. Theroux, assists at assemblies and provides the Cavaliers with the oral bulletins.

The California Scholarship Federation honors those Cavalier students who have proven themselves to be academically outstanding. High grade point average is the major requirement.

Oratorical Interpretation

At the State Qualifier Tournament held at Valley State College, Cleveland topped all other Los Angeles City Schools to qualify three students for the State Championship. Cleveland placed second, only two points short of Loyola's first place. Forty-three outstanding Southern Californian schools were competing, but in spite of this, five of our students made the finals. Seven participants, of the thirteen entered, made the semi-finals. Cleveland eclipsed the performance of all other schools by winning two first place trophies and a second place trophy. Ed Sallia won the first place trophy for the best dramatic interpretation; Alan Feuer received the first place trophy for the best oratorical analysis; and Wayne Doss received the second place citation for oratorical interpretation.

Again at the Sylmar Invitational, Cleveland bested all comers. Paula Ryals received the only bronze medal, for original oratory, while Superiorities were won by Laurie Scott, Sue Miller, Martha Cunningham, and Jean Arbogast.

Traveling to the South Bay area, Cleveland captured the Sweepstakes trophy for interpretative events at the Glover's Invitational. Again, Ed Sallia received a first place trophy for dramatic interpretation.

Rounding out the year, Wayne Doss, Alan Feuer, and Ed Sallia traveled to Stanford to represent the L.A. City Schools at the State Tournament. Wayne Doss ultimately placed fifth in the state for oratorical interpretation.

In the fall of 1968, Cleveland suffered temporary set backs at both the Novice and Open Tournaments. Although it failed to wrest the championship away from Taft, Cleveland's Speech Team scored an easy second place at the Novice Individual Events Tournament at Canoga Park.

At the Fall Open Tournament held at Mira Costa, however, Cleveland tied with Taft to place first in individual events, receiving the South Bay Novice League Open Interpretative Events Sweepstakes Trophy. Jody Diamond received a gold medal for dramatic interpretation, while the teams of Mike Rifkin-Tim Strann and Rosalind Van Auker-Richard Purkey received medals for debate.

The Spring semester got off to a great start with Cleveland excelling at two Invitational Tournaments. At La Verne, the Cavaliers received a second place Sweepstakes trophy. All told, eight students received accolades. Mark Hendrickson received a first for dramatic interpretation; Liz Harris, a first for girls' original oratory; Sue Miller, a first for girls' oratorical interpretation; and Betty Winchell, a first for a novice dramatic interpretation.

A few weeks later at the Mira Costa Invitational, a strong showing by the team proved conclusively that Cleveland had the best speech and debate squad in Los Angeles County. Altogether, Cleveland captured twelve trophies, including the grand sweepstakes award, and placed first with 133 points. Additionally, Cleveland tied for second place in debate sweepstakes and placed second in individual events. Both of these honors earned the squad trophies. Individually, Cleveland students won nine trophies. The novice debate team of Ken Zwick-Vickie McIntyre, with only five weeks of debate behind them, weathered all competition and ended up with the first place trophy for "B" debate. Closely following them was another novice team, Blair Levin-Anne Klindt, who received third place trophies. Mark Hendrickson received two trophies: a first place trophy as the most versatile speaker in interpretative events and a third place trophy for the best humorous interpretation. Paula Ryals merited the first place trophy for the best girls' extemporaneous speaking, while Jack Shear received a fifth place trophy for dramatic interpretation. Bob Keller earned a third place trophy as the most versatile speaker in mixed events, both interpretive and original.

In March the Cavaliers traveled to North Hollywood for the Spring Novice Individual Events Tournament. Fifteen Cleveland students medaled to earn for the team the sweepstakes in individual events and the second place trophy in Debate. Medalists were Cynthia Wells, Karen McComiskey, Carol Christy, Joyce Hare, Eric Lauritzen, Jody Diamond, Jim Craig, Chris Maier, Glenn Owen, Nonnie Caiserman, Carol Larson, Melody La Montia, Bob Keller, and Vickie McIntyre.

Two weeks later Cleveland hosted the S.C.D.L. Open Tournament and romped off with the grand sweepstakes for individual events. Nine Cavaliers received gold medals. Jody Diamond received two, one for dramatic interpretation and the other for humorous interpretation, while Liz Harris received her medal for impromptu speaking and program reading. Seventeen Cleveland students received superiorities including Anne Klindt, Carol Christy, Betty Winchell (for both humorous and dramatic interpretation), Tom Nelson, Martha Cunningham, Bridget Flannagan, Melody La Montia, Bob Keller, Eric Lauritzen, Liza Ami, Marc Chotiner, Liz Harris, and Carol Larson.

As this year's book goes to the presses, the results of the National Qualifier held at Loyola University, have been announced. Only two points separated Cleveland from first place, and both Paula Ryals and Sue Miller placed in the finals. In anticipation of next year's National Qualifier, Cleveland remains the forensic squad to beat, having more cumulative trophy points than any N.F.L. squad in the area.

HUR-RY ! HUR-RY ! HUR-RY !

Step right up and see the funniest, strangest, the most unusual thing you will ever witness—Cleveland High School's annual staff trying to create a yearbook!!!!!!!!

Watch with awe as Mr. Anderson screams at Klauss to start drawing; as he cringes with embarrassment after calling Nancy Wilshusen "Linda", or 'Sandy,' or any name but Nancy; and as he has a trauma with each deadline approaching!! See Debbie Shirreffs stamp her feet and yell 'UGLY!' . . . and Gail Purdy fight Debbie about who's going to take what pictures on what day because Gail can't!! See Camille Catlett, "Big Ed", try to organize parties, the staff, college applications, etc. with little or no success. Watch Nancy Liebl run after Dan Brown or anyone else who has candy, and Nancy Wilshusen curse under her breath at Mr. Anderson as she wears a sign which reads "My name is Nancy." See Al "Nate" Nelson— 'cause you sure can't hear him. Watch Les John struggling to alphabetize the seniors while taking time out to comment on Klauss' clothes. See Dan Brown scream at people to leave his pictures alone, and then tell the staff how great the Achaeans are! . . . And don't miss Sharon Erlich's imitations of all the cheerleaders . . . See Vicki McChesney type the same copy over three (3) times while in complete exhaustion from carrying her typewriter. Watch as Amy Hastings is hissed at by the entire staff because she is so efficient and she went to Hawaii for Christmas vacation. See Al resist Sharon's invitations to the vice versa, and see Kathy Biro working, even after class is over (she is probably practicing her Drill Team routines). See Cheryl "Ding-Ding" Rackley, if you can find her, she's never there! Watch Martin Klauss draw on the blackboard or imitate Mr. A. instead of drawing! And don't forget Dan Brown displaying his enormous collection of empty "Ju Ju Bee" boxes . . . See Mr. Powell bring staff all kinds of goodies and threaten to send us the Venice "Gondolier"—Yech!! . . . And see Mr. Snider scare Dan B. to death by not bringing his pictures!!!!

This hilarious show goes on every Monday thru Friday and the admission is FREE!!! So Hurry, hurry, hurry!!! . . .

Hendricks and Leo Hopp and Pole vaulter Gary Sauck from returning to form.

Coach Zuniga explained that during the whole season he used mostly tenth and eleventh graders but the few seniors that did compete did very well including Gary Sauck, the best all-round track man as he pole vaulted 13 feet consistantly and sprinted the high hurdles in 15.3 seconds; Bob De Loosa, who placed second in the low hurdles in the league finals; Mike Mitchell, West Valley League high jump champ and Dave Roosevelt, a consistant performer in the mile.

"The seniors came through in the finals to give us fourth place," Coach Zuniga said. Senoir Rick Monk won points in the long jump as the coach has called Monk the hardest worker on the teams; Seniors Gary Sauck, Bob DeLoosa, and Mike Mitchell also propelled the Cavaliers past the foes who previously had beaten them.

Paul Kramer led the Bee squad which ended the season in fifth place, in total points scoring in the 100, 220 long jump and relay; and winning a third in the century in the league finals. Also giving fine performances were Greg Brunsell in the shot put and long jump, Mike Watson in the pole vault and Mike Cook in the high jump.

It becomes time to brief Cleveland students on the outlook of the track and field team as the [illegible] track and field season draws near. According to coach Bob Zuniga Cleveland's outlook is bright. A well balanced team, highlighted by a deep strength in all of the field events, and lot of potential in the distance runs will undoubtedly make Cleveland a top contender in the West Valley League.

The field events will feature Rick Monk in the broadjump, Gary Sauck and Bernnie Schmalhofer in the pole vault, and Max Mitchell in the highjump. would seem to pinpoint Cleveland as a power to reckon with in the always tight West Valley League race. Said Coach Zuniga. "I like to get a big squad. We're in much better shape than last season. We'll be right in there for the championship."

For those who are not acquainted with the sport of cross country, here is a layman's introduction. There is only one event, the mile and eight-tenths up and down hill run. Each of the runners receives a place number upon crossing the finish line. The lowest five place numbers of each school are added and the school with the lowest score wins the meet.

Aquamen Slated to Meet With Powerhouse Parrots

W[illegible] Interscholastic [illegible] position. Cleveland [illegible] swim team open[illegible] season March 28 at the San Fernando Ahletic Club.

The Parrots, led by national AAU breast stroke champion Ken Merton, are generally reguarded as second only to mighty Birmingham among Valley Aqua squads. The Cavaliers though with a flock of returning lettermen and graduates of last year's fine Bee squad stand an excellent chance of showing well.

Leading the way will be Steve Babbidge in the 200-yard free style and the 100-yard butterfly. Louis Manos is a fine performer in both the 50-yard free style and the 100-yard back stroke but will face strong opposition from a pair of Poly stars in these events.

Parrot Phil Dicksen backstroked his way to a second place finish in last year's city meet. His brother Dave copped a third in the Valley in the 50-yard free style and was second in the 100-yard free.

Divers Lead Bee Tankmen Against Poly

If the diving event proves decisive Cleveland's Bee tank squad should cop its March 28 opener against Poly at the San Fernando Athletic Club. The Cavaliers, with Sunday Sautier and Pat Yesey are strong in this department while the Parrots are rated as weak.

Leading Cleveland's way in the swimming events will be Don Wickersham. Poly's top performer is breast-stroker Ed Mirsky.

Paced by Fred Maw, the Cee's stand a good chance of winning. The Parrot squad is rated by its coach as "an unknown quantity."

JV, Bee Cagers Seek Win; Cees Undefeated Thus Far

Cleveland's JV basketeers will seek to post another victory, when they go against Canoga Park at 6 p.m. in the Hunter's ... gym tomorrow.

They will be underdogs despite their better-than-expected ... season record of two wins, two losses.

The Cavaliers hoopsters have 36-24 and 46-35 victories over Grant with losses of 50-28 to Lincoln and 45-35 to Polytechnic.

Canoga Park will be led by Dave Phillips, a forward who had 18 and 12 points in the Hunters first two outings and Tom Ursin, center.

Hal Brewer Hunter coach is fairly optimistic noting that his squad though losing to North Hollywood 45-27, knocked off Poly 40-32.

Cavalier coach Stan Okeson Bee and Cee squads will travel to San Fernando Recreation Playground for their meeting with Canoga Park.

The team will be slight underdogs. The Cavaliers have beaten Grant 42-29, 54-18, and have loosed to Lincoln, 54-49 and Poly, 57-37.

Hunter Coach Doug MacKenzie's quintet headed up by Gary Thompson has a 39-36 decision over Poly and one over North Hollywood, 58-43.

The Cavalier Cee five has not yet suffered a loss and enter the game as slight favorites. Their various preys have been, Grant, 28-17, 43-

Bee Gridders Finish Season In Third Place

"This season has been very good despite lack of depth in the team," states Bee football coach Arnold Lechman.

He further said, "We were a little behind the rest of the valley in practice time due to a shortage of uniforms the first week, but next year we should be able to get started right away."

GRANADA HILLS: The 1968 Cavalier football squad started out the non-league schedule against Granada Hills. Jim Early looked as if he was going to tally all of Cleveland's points for the night as he scored on a pass from John Kurtz, covering forty-seven yards, and a plunge from two yards out. After the half-time break, Jim Fenwick scored on a seven yard run. Tim Belton kicked two PATs for the night. Final Score: Cleveland—20; Granada Hills—0.

An award, which shall be called the "Outstanding Player" award, was given by the Boys' Vice-Principal, Mr. DeFrates, to the boy who showed the most "guts" during the course of any one game. The first recipient of this award was BRAD ALTMAN for his efforts in the Granada Hills game. The names of other winners of this award shall be given in the write-up of the game in which they were so honored.

WASHINGTON: The Cavaliers had decided to keep their unscored-upon record clean as they took the field against the Generals. However, it was the offense that got things going with Jim Fenwick capping an eighty-one yard drive by scampering ten yards off guard for six points. Then the defense went to work. The next five Cleveland touchdowns were set up by Jim Anderson, Doug Brockert, Phil Verdugo, Bill Nye and Joe Morello with 10th grader Nye intercepting a pass, and the others recovering fumbles. The scoring was done by Jim Fenwick, on runs of four and nineteen yards; Jim Early, with runs of four and one yard; and Dave Martin, crashing over center for his score of the night. Tim Belton hit on five of six PAT's. Final Score: Cleveland—41; Washington—0. Outstanding Player—BILL NYE.

BIRMINGHAM: The Birmingham jinx is dead, but at the end of the first half, it looked like it might have lived. The Braves took a 7-6 lead into the locker room at intermission. Jim Fenwick went in from eight yards out, but Tim Belton missed his only conversion of the night. After half-time, the Cavaliers came alive and Fenwick scored twice more from four and five yards. The final score of the game came with five seconds left as John Kurtz connected with Tom Darling for his fifth reception of the night. This one was good for eighteen yards and six points. Bill Nye set up the last two tallies with a fumble recovery and an interception. Final Score: Cleveland—27; Birmingham—7. Outstanding Player—JOE LUPTON.

RESEDA: The first half went along as if Reseda and the Cavaliers were evenly matched. Cleveland held a slim 7-2 lead while the drill team performed a salute to the Olympics. Reseda tallied first by dropping John Kurtz in his own endzone for a safety. The Cavaliers' first score came as Jim Fenwick crashed over from one yard out. After the half-time break, the two teams resumed play and Reseda looked as if the rest had done some good. As the gun sounded to end the third quarter, the Regents held on to a slim 8-7 lead. Then in the fourth period Cleveland decided to play football, and the results were devastating (according to the Reseda team). The play which got things rolling for the Cavaliers was a double pass from John Kurtz to Jim Fenwick and then to Darrell Suarez, covering better than seventy-five yards and giving Suarez a touchdown to his credit. This made the score 14-8 in favor of the Cavaliers but they were not willing to stop there. The final tally of the night came as big fullback Mike Tindell swept right end for four yards and six points. Tim Belton then added his third PAT in as many tries. Final Score: Cleveland—21; Reseda—8. Outstanding Player—LARRY LENNERT.

CHATSWORTH: The first half was relatively uneventful, and at the half-time break the Cavalier grid-men held a slight 7-0 lead. That score came as Jim Fenwick ended a drive with a one-yard plunge into the endzone. After intermission, Cleveland looked more like the team that defeated Reseda the week before. Scoring four times in the last two quarters, the Cavaliers put the game completely out of reach for the Chancellors. Fenwick scored two more touchdowns on runs of forty yards and one yard. Mike Tindell carried one in from eighteen yards out. Chuck Erickson took in a John Kurtz aerial for fifteen yards and six points. Tim Belton was four-for-five in the PAT department. Final Score: Cleveland—34; Chatsworth—0. Outstanding Player—JIM EARLY.

TAFT: The Cavaliers took the field against Taft and from the start this game looked like trouble. The half-time score convinced the Cleveland team that it was time to get going. However, at the end of the third stanza, it was still Taft—7; Cleveland—0. It wasn't too late though, and John Kurtz connected with Chuck Erickson for forty yards and six points. Tim Belton's conversion was good. With time running out, and the score still tied, Belton came back onto the field to try a forty-one yard field goal. This time his kick was off and the score stood at Cleveland—7; Taft—7. Outstanding Player—MIKE TINDELL.

SYLMAR: Taking a break from league play, the Cavaliers faced the Spartans on the Cleveland home turf. The initial score of the contest was chalked up by the Spartans on a sixteen yard pass play. As the second quarter started, so did the Cleveland team. With only two minutes gone in the period, John Kurtz connected with Darrell Suarez for twenty yards and six points. Only forty-five seconds later, it was again Kurtz to Suarez. This time the touchdown play covered forty-two yards. Late in the third quarter, fullback Mike Tindell muscled his way for three yards and six points upping the Cavaliers' edge to thirteen points. The final tally of the game came in the fourth quarter as Kurtz connected with Tom Darling for the final fifteen yards of the drive downfield. Tim Belton then converted his third of four for the night. Final Score: Cleveland—27; Sylmar—7. Outstanding Player—JIM ANDERSON.

CANOGA PARK: As it stood, the team which left the field victorious would be West Valley League Champions for 1968. The question in everyone's mind was "Cleveland or Canoga Park?". There was no doubt, however, in the minds of Cavalier students, as the powerful Cleveland offense had scored two touchdowns and the equally potent defense had held the Hunters scoreless through the first half. Cleveland's scores were on runs of three yards by Jim Fenwick and nine yards by John Kurtz. Fenwick should have had both touchdowns to his credit, but an unfortunate clip by an overanxious Cavalier called back the beautiful ninety-four yard gallop and shortened it to a gain of fifty-five. The third quarter looked as if Canoga might have a chance, as they narrowed the Cavalier lead to six points with a touchdown and conversion. Going into the fourth quarter all doubt was dispelled as Jim Early, taking the place of the injured Jim Fenwick, carried the ball across the goal line three times, from one, twenty-five, and three yards out. Tim Belton connected on three of five PAT's for the night, bringing the Cavalier total to thirty-three points. The Hunters managed to push across their second touchdown, as the rain recommenced and the final gun sounded. Final Score: Cleveland—33; Canoga Park—14. Outstanding Player—BILL RANDOLPH.

JEFFERSON: In marked contrast to the Canoga Park game a week earlier, the Cavalier defense had to hold on to a one point lead through the entire second half. The offense could not come up with another score after Mike Tindell's first quarter gallop for the final nine yards of Cleveland's best drive that night. Tim Belton's PAT proved to be the deciding margin as the Democrats scored, but their pass attempt for the extra point was knocked down by Bill Randolph on a fine defensive play. Final Score: Cleveland—7; Jefferson—6.

LOS ANGELES: Advancing into the quarter-finals, Cleveland faced a big Roman squad. To illustrate how big they were, Dave Fogle said after the game, "I was looking up to those guys!". As the saying goes, "the bigger they are, the harder they fall," and L.A. fell hard. The first score of the game came on a wingback reverse with Darrell Suarez covering the four yards needed for the T.D. The Cavaliers used their fatal halfback pass to account for their next six points. It was a perfectly executed pass from Jim Fenwick to Jim Early, which covered the twenty-seven yards needed for the score. The third quarter went quickly as neither team could come up with a good drive. Cleveland's 14-6 lead (L.A. scored in the second period) was cut to 14-12, as the Romans pushed the ball across the goal line to add to their total in the fourth quarter. Cleveland responded with a drive that not only ate up yardage, but also time. With only 1:06 showing on the clock, John Kurtz spotted Tom Darling in the endzone and hit him with a seven yard touchdown pass. Tim Belton kicked his third in as many tries to send the Cavaliers to the semi-finals. Final Score: Cleveland—21; Los Angeles—12. Outstanding Player—RICH REPLOGLE.

POLYTECHNIC: The Cavalier football team fought all the way, just as they had through the previous ten games which led up to their only defeat of the year; but this time it was their last game. There's no way one can express the way our team gave their all but still came up on the short end. To mention the outstanding players on a team like the 1968 Cavalier squad would take all day, because all these boys made it possible for any Cavalier to stand up and say that he's proud to go to Cleveland. The scoring for the Cavaliers came on runs by Darrel Suarez (23 yards), Jim Fenwick (27 yards), and Mike Tindell (12 yards). Tim Belton added two PAT's to bring the total to twenty points for the night. The defensive team also played well and recovered four Poly fumbles; Dave Fogle and Larry Lennert each grabbed one, and Jim Anderson came up with two. The breaks, however, all went for the Parrots, who were able to capitalize on them and ended up with thirty-seven points. Once again the Cavaliers thank these boys for giving their hearts for Cleveland High. Final Score: Cleveland—20; Polytechnic—37.

The Cleveland Story

Ted, Good Luck in College & with your Architecture, College! Good Luck! Jim Fenwick

Above - Coach Kurtz leaves the field after giving his offensive unit some instructions during the scrimmage with Monroe. This was the second year in a row that Cleveland has won this pre-season warm-up. The score: Cleveland, two touchdowns and a field goal, Monroe, two touchdowns. Left - Junior sensation, Jim Fenwick, shows his tremendous second effort as he cuts back inside to score Cleveland's first touchdown of the 1968 season. Tom Darling comes on to help take out a couple of Granada defenders.

Here's one Regent who didn't want to get up after Brad Altman put the finishing touch on a convincing tackle. Not many Reseda runners wanted to get up as Cleveland handed them a brutal 21-8 loss.

Tom Darling, Cleveland's top receiver this year, takes in a John Kurtz aerial in the game against Reseda. Tom had two receptions for the night, covering thirty-five yards.

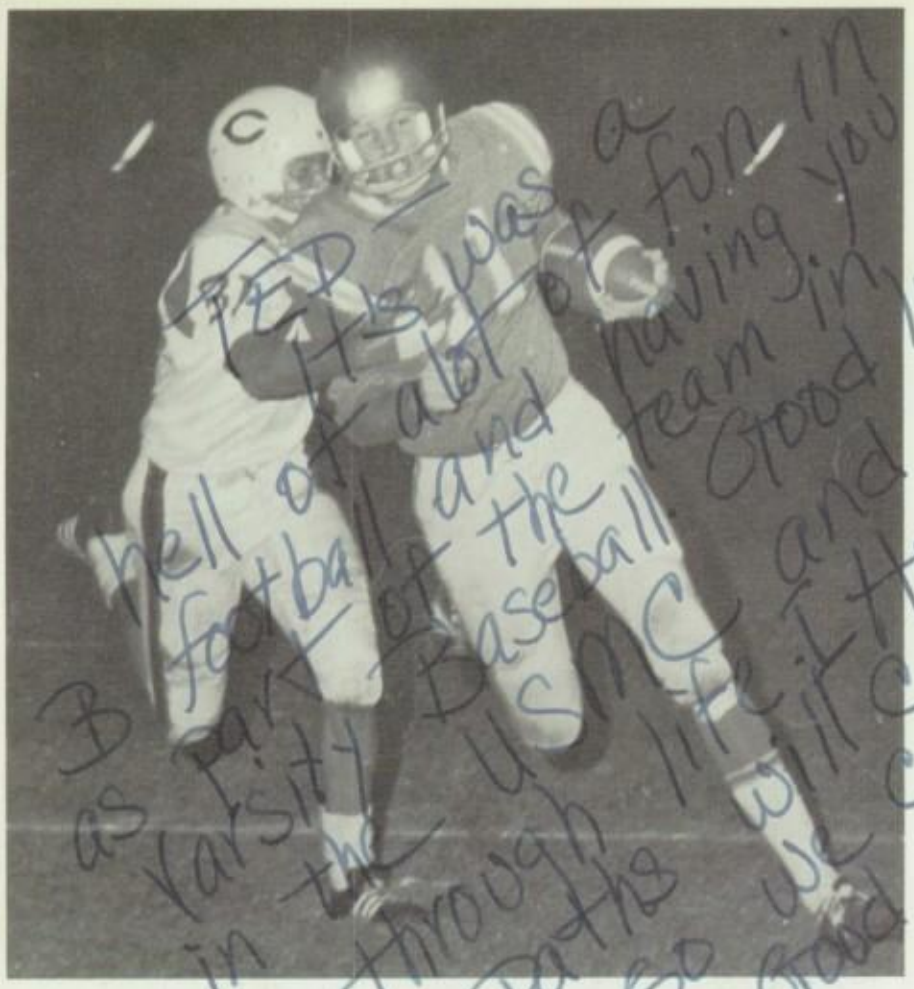
Suarez heads for six! Darrell Suarez turned on the steam and covered what was left of seventy-five yards after taking in the "bomb" from Fenwick on the halfback pass. That was the beginning of the end for Reseda.

Mike Tindell rips off considerable yardage as two Regents close in to try to bring him down. Mike was a consistent ground gainer all year for the Cavaliers and along with Fenwick made up the most feared twosome in the league.

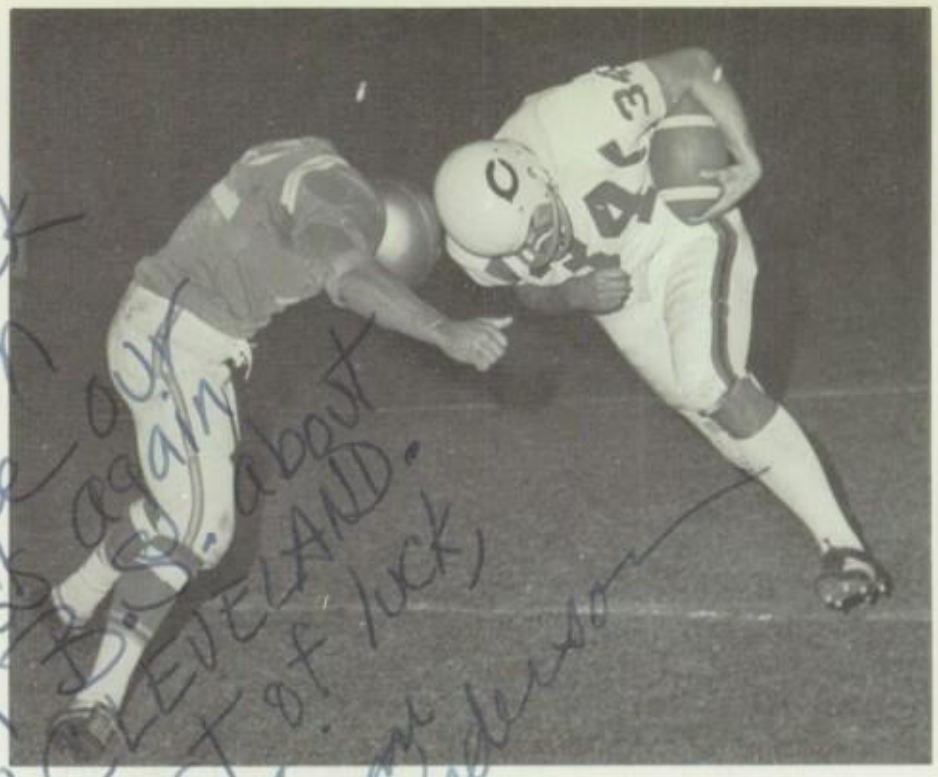
Quarterback, John Kurtz, looks as if there is trouble brewing as he rounds left end. John gained thirteen yards running, and added sixty-eight more in the passing department as the Cavaliers beat Reseda in their first league game.

Defensive "gems". Jim Early, Jim Martinez(22), and Jim Anderson(81) show the devastating power of the number one defense in the city, as they proceed to crunch another Regent runner.

Jim Early looks for running room as three Reseda defenders close in. The play went for twenty-five yards as Early took in the pass from Kurtz and darted for more yardage.



Jim Anderson grabs onto the Chatsworth quarterback who doesn't seem too happy about it. The Chancellors weren't too happy either, as the Cavaliers handed them a convincing 34-0 beating.



That's using your head, Erik! Chuck Erickson puts his head down and battles his way for more yardage. Chuck picked up sixty-six yards on five receptions. He also accounted for six of Cleveland's thirty-four points.

The Number One Defense. The Cavalier defensive squad, shown here, gave up only twenty-nine league points and ninty-eight overall, while the Cleveland offense exploded for ninty-five and two-hundred fifty-eight respectively.

Cleveland Goes To Playoffs

Larry Lennert (62) almost breaks a Jefferson runner in half and Jim Anderson (81) comes over to add the finishing touch. Lennert and Anderson were both main contributors to Cleveland's great defense.

"Wait a minute, Mr. Heinbechner." Larry Lennert seems to have different ideas as to what the Poly quarterback should do. Larry played magnificently on offense and defense all season.

The end of the line for the Poly ball carrier. Jim Anderson (81), Bill Randolph (42), and Larry Lennert (62) put a halt to the progress of a flying Parrot. Poly put a halt to Cleveland, however, with their only defeat of the year. Final score: Poly-37; Cleveland-20.

To Ted,
Its been nice knowing you and really killing those guys on defense. Hope you have lots of luck after graduating. Hope I run into you some time

The "Puke's Peak" Hill Climbers

Cleveland's Varsity Cross Country squad ran their way to second place in the West Valley League this year with the help of the boys shown on this page. Starting from the top and moving clockwise, Glen Hitchborn is shown leading the pack over "Puke's Peak" and leaving the rugged Pierce course behind him. Mike Boyce and Bill Ehrecke try to catch Hitchborn as they come to the summit of the hill with Ben Hernandez (left background) not far behind. Next come Dave Hall and Dennis Currie trying to squeeze out a Chatsworth harrier. You may ask, "What's this all for?", and I think the answer is shown clearly on Terry Cookson's face, as he crosses the finish line at the end of the two mile course.

Varsity Basketball 1968—69

The 1968 basketball season opened with the Cavaliers nabbing all three of its pre-season games. By using good defense and strong board play, the team whipped Polytechnic 69-59, completely outplayed Los Angeles 86-72, and barely slipped past Birmingham 79-74. With the team's strong bench and all-around teamwork, the Cleveland High Student Body was looking forward to a prosperous 1968 season.

To the disappointment of a capacity crowd, the Cavaliers were downed by Reseda in their first League game, 87-68. Due to Reseda's shooting 72% in the first half, our team's effort was to no avail. Leading the scoring was Tex Heald, 19 points and 10 rebounds; Steve Hansen, 13 points and Dan Elvester, 11 points.

In their second league encounter, the Cavaliers easily whipped Chatsworth 74-58, and showed why they were contenders to enter the city tournament. Our team caught fire quickly and jumped to a 20 point lead early in the first half, and coasted to their first league victory. Strong performance were turned in by Heald, 20 points and 12 rebounds; Randy Adams, 19 points; Elvester, 11 points and Dan Kellogg, 10 points.

In the third game of their young season, the Cleveland hoopsters played their worst game losing 92-62. With lack of hustle and rebounding, our team was beaten badly by the tall Toreadors. The only two juniors on the team, Al "Nate" Nelson and Elvester, led in scoring with 20 and 11, respectively.

With six players hitting in double figures, our team won its second game, beating Canoga Park in overtime 88-85. It was a quick moving game with both teams fast breaking at every possible chance. The Cavaliers had well rounded scoring with Adams, 22 points and 15 rebounds; Nelson, 16 points; Kellogg, 15 points and 10 rebounds; Heald, 14 points and 13 rebounds; Elvester, 11 points and Hansen, 10 points.

In Cleveland's second encounter with Reseda, the Cavalers were barely beaten in the last two minutes; 72-64. It was our team's best effort of the season, showing both a well-rounded offense and a tough defense. The defeat was especially heartbreaking because Reseda was ranked number two in the city. Leading the team was Heald, 15 points and 14 rebounds; Nelson, 15 points; Hansen, 14 points and Adams, 12 points.

Coming into the home stretch of the 1968 season, our hoopsters downed the scrappy Chancellors; 73-68. The team dominated the first half, but barely pulled it out as Chatsworth made a quick comeback. The scoring was led by Heald, 18 points; Nelson, 16 points; Adams, 16 points and Hansen, 13 points.

In the Cavalier's most important game of the season they defeated Taft, 70-54. It was a must game for our team because a win would give them a chance to enter the city finals. The Toreadors were behind from the first quarter as our players dropped back into a tough men-to-man defense. Leading the scoring was Heald, 18 points; Hansen, 11 points and Kellogg, 10 points.

For the second time in a row, Cleveland's Cavaliers barely crept by Canoga Park. The entire game was a see-saw battle with the lead constantly changing hands. With the help of some expert shooting by Steve Hansen, 24 points and Tex Heald, 20 points, we made it past the Hunters 66-64.

To the disappointment of all Cleveland fans, their basketball team's attempt to gain a berth in the City Play-Offs was unsuccessful. The game at Canoga Park ended in victory for Taft, 69-54.

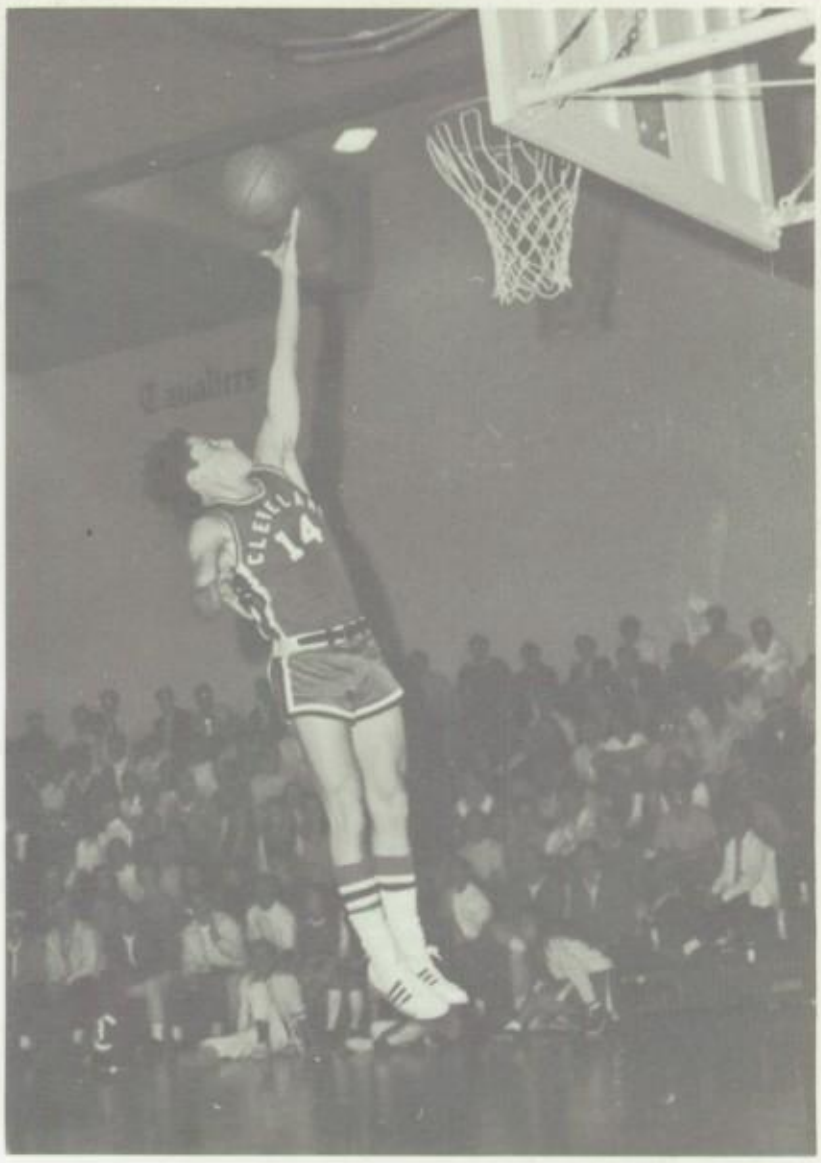
Dan "Big Bill" Kellogg blocks one of many shots in our victory over Chatsworth. Though only 6'3", Dan was one of our team's best defensive men.



Returning letterman, Jeff Higginbothom, shows his great leaping ability while driving in for two.

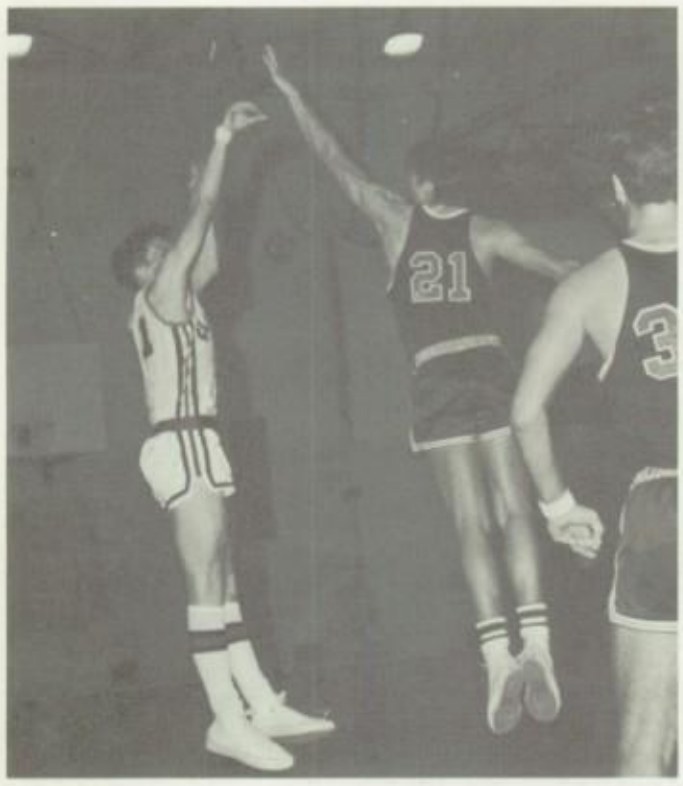
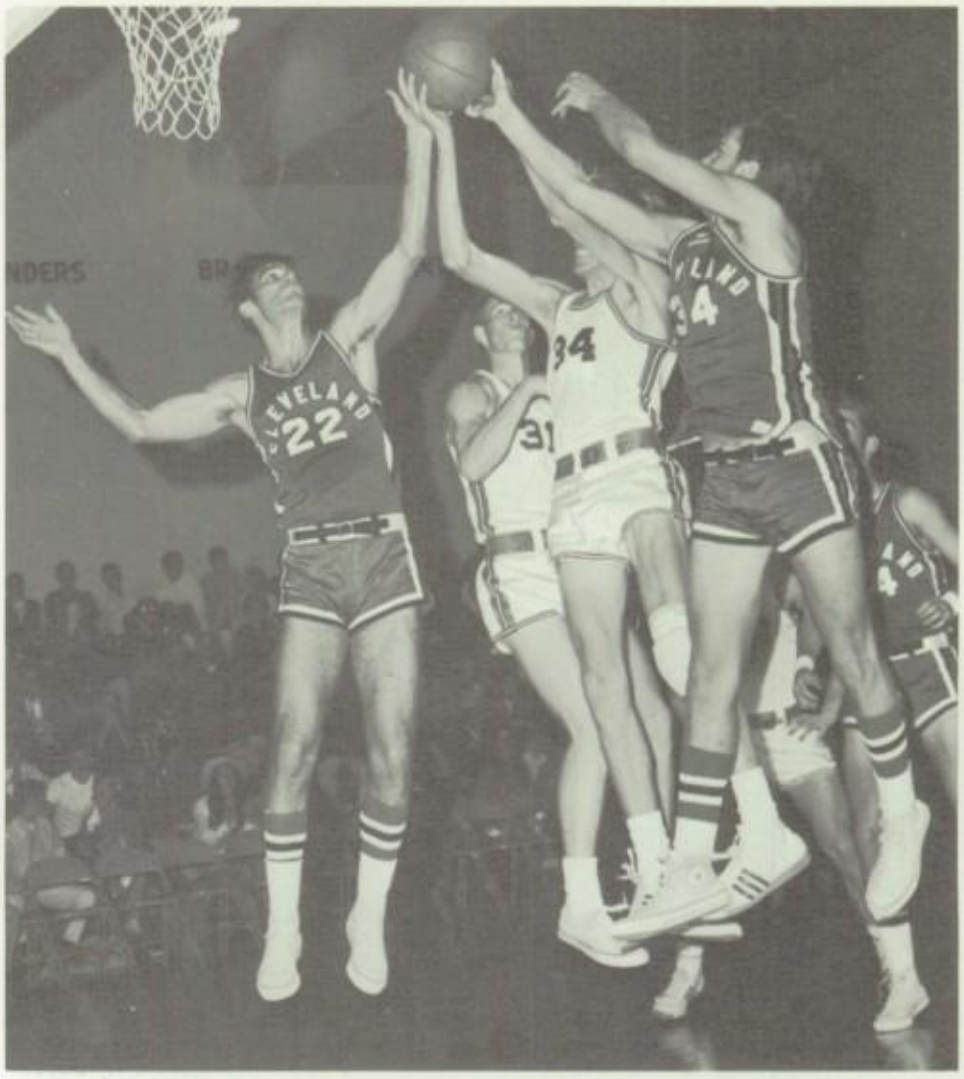
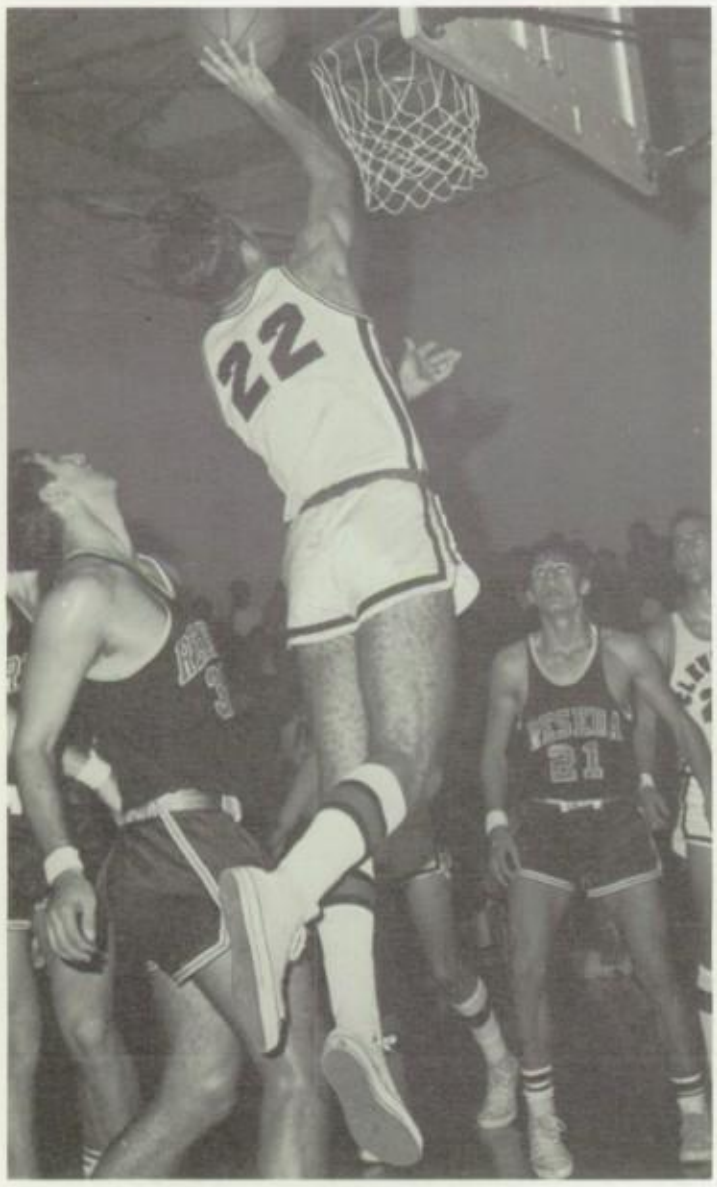
Junior guard Al "Nate" Nelson flips up a left-hander over a defender. Nelson and center Dan Elvester will both be returning next year.



Senior Steve Hansen puts up his patented jumper in our first game against Reseda.



Randy Adams and Tex Heald demonstrate the board strength that kept us in so many games.



Center Randy Adams follows in an offensive rebound over a surprised Regent.

Junior Varsity Drops To Third

The 1968-9 version of the Cleveland Junior Varsity Basketball team had a fairly successful season, finishing with a 4-4 league record and a 6-8 overall season mark. The team finished in third place with many players showing promise for future Varsity greatness. It was a quick, fast-breaking team led by junior guards Lew Winchell (9.1) and Galen Quam (12.0). These two did a fine job of leading the fast-break and shooting their patented jumpers. The leading scorer and rebounder was hustler John Howley with a 15.2 point average and an average of ten rebounds a game. Paul Rolfzen, a transfer from Birmingham High, did an efficient job, averaging 10.4 points per game. Big Jim Kent (6.3) and Tom Sampson (3.9) helped tremendously on defense and played well on the boards. Although injured most of the season, Reed Allen came in and showed many times why he is one of the best contenders for a starting assignment next year. It was a successful season in most categories and was marked by the improvement of future Cleveland stars.

Bee Basketball

The Cleveland Bees ran and gunned their way to the second place spot in the league with a 4-4 mark, and a 8-6 overall record. It was an exciting season for the Bees, with three school records set in shooting and free-throw categories. The team's leading scorer was senior Mike Matthews, who averaged 14.9 points per game. Mike showed his great shooting ability by setting two records: game free-throw average (4.9) and the most free-throws in one game (15). He was followed by sharpshooting Pat Winters (13.6), who set a school record for the most points in one game (34), and Dennis Debevec (11.5). Senior Les John was the team's leading rebounder with 64 and an 8.4 game point average. Junior Fred Hopp showed his leaping ability by picking off 51 rebounds and averaging 4.4 points per game. Two fine tenth graders who contributed greatly were Tom Lewis (4.7) and an exceptional passer, Bob "Big A" Austin, who averaged 5.5 points and had the most assists on the team with 25.

All in all, it was a satisfying year for Coach Silverman and his team, leaving many high hopes for next year.

This year's Cee team ended up in the third position in league standings and had a 5-9 record, including non-league games. The team was led by two gunning guards, Frank Zazanis and Dale Kimbal. Zazanis broke three school records: making 30 points in one game, averaging 19.2 points per game, and 3.8 free-throws per game. Kimbal averaged 18.4 and set a new record for most free-throws in one game with 11. Forward Craig Alton led in the rebound category with 68 and had a 7.5 average. Tom Shedd was fourth on the team in scoring (5.7), followed by Tim Patterson and Tim Whitaker with their 4.5 and 3.9 averages. Also showing promise for future years at Cleveland were center Brian Simpson and guard Chuck Herman. Although the team came in third, it was a thrilling, record-breaking season for our young Cee team.

The spirit at Cleveland High has never been as exuberant as this Fall. The overflowing stands vibrated with enthusiastic approval from anxious spectators. The devoted cheering squad made sure that the vivacity of the crowd never faltered. The vigorous song and yell leaders led supporters in various cheers. When they were not performing at games, they were busy cluttering the campus with morale-boosting decorations.

The chant, "2-4-6-8 We'll be champs in '68" became a reality through the efforts of successful athletic teams and their dedicated followers.

Drill Team and Band:

This year's Drill Team reached new heights of excellence. The enthusiastic help of their sponsor, Miss Yvonne Sarns, and routine coordinator, Miss Marcy McGeeney, enabled the Cleveland High School Drill Team to "march to city". Exhaustive hours of practice perfected routines which enlivened football halftimes.

Each girl's smile on Friday night displayed her true Cavalier spirit. Learning responsibility and awareness were also an important part of being one of the one hundred and five girls on the Number One Drill Team.

At the close of the season, the Drill Team once again held their annual Drill Team and Band Dessert. At this time, new officers were installed and awards were presented to several members.

Cleveland Varsity Baseball 1969

NON-LEAGUE: After winning both non-league scrimmages against Van Nuys and North Hollywood, 5-1 and 7-5 respectively, the Cavaliers started the regulation non-league schedule against Verdugo Hills at Sunland Park. From the beginning, Bill Randolph did not have his stuff and Verdugo came up with four quick runs, scoring twice in each of the first two innings. Tom Gleason was then called upon and he completely silenced Verdugo's bats. The Cavaliers, however, couldn't seem to keep a rally going and ended up without a single run at the end of the game. Final Score: Cleveland—0; Verdugo Hills—4.

The following week against Hollywood, on Cavalier home grounds, the Cleveland bats came alive and the Cavaliers had tallied fourteen times by the end of the regulation seven innings. Excellent pitching by Tom Gleason held the Shieks to a scant two runs. Final Score: Cleveland—14; Hollywood—2.

Polytechnic: The Cavaliers received excellent pitching from Bill Randolph; and their hitting was something else. The batting corps was led by Randolph himself as he and Tom Gleason both homered, with Gleason going 4 for 4 and Jim Anderson 3 for 4. Altogether, the Cavaliers collected fifteen hits and fourteen runs, while Randolph held the Parrots to only two runs. Final Score: Cleveland—14; Polytechnic—2. Franklin: Finishing out the non-league schedule, the Cavaliers once again received fantastic pitching from Tom Gleason, and Cleveland hitters tallied six times to end the non-league warm-ups with a shut-out. Final Score: Cleveland—6; Franklin—0. The Cavaliers enter into league play with a fine 3-1 non-league record.

RESEDA: Entering league play, the Cavaliers sported a fine 3 and 1 record in non-league contests. Excellent pitching by Bill Randolph and Tom Gleason kept the Regent bats quiet as they allowed only two hits during the entire game. But Cavalier bats were just as quiet, until the sixth inning. With one out, Randy Jones singled into right-center. Brett Steele then walked and with men on first and second, Dan Brown doubled, and Jones scored. Miles Hopkins followed with another double, scoring Steele from third and Brown from second. This gave Cleveland their first league win and their fourth win in a row. Final Score: Cleveland—3; Reseda—0.

CHATSWORTH: The Cavaliers wasted no time in taking advantage of a good thing. With one out in the first inning, Rich Replogle got aboard on an error. He was followed by Jim Anderson, who walked, and Brett Steele, who was hit by a pitch. Dan Brown came to the plate with bases loaded but hit an easy grounder to third, allowing Replogle to be forced at home. Tom Gleason was then hit by a pitch, forcing the first run in from third. Randy Jones came up with the bases still loaded and responded with a single, scoring Steele from third and Brown from second. Chatsworth managed to score twice in the second inning before being silenced. Cleveland's final run came as Brown hit an easy roller back to the pitcher, whose throw was off, letting Brown get to first safely. With Gleason at bat, Brown stole second and went to third as the ball rolled into center field. Gleason then singled and Brown scored easily from third. Final Score: Cleveland—4; Chatsworth—2.

TAFT: Coming off a 4-2 victory over Chatsworth, the Cavaliers battled the always tough Toreadors of Taft. Cleveland struck first with a rally in the second inning. With two out, Rich Replogle reached base on a single, Dan Brown then followed by reaching first on an error, and Replogle ended up on third. The Taft hurler then tried to pick Brown off first, but the ball got away from the first baseman, Replogle scored, and Brown went to third. Jim Fenwick, at bat during all of this, then singled home Brown. Phil Barnes followed with another single and with the aid of a couple of Taft errors, Fenwick scored. Things were going fine and Bill Randolph was followed by some good relief pitching from Tom Gleason, but the seventh inning blew-up in the Cavaliers' face. Taft combined hits with Cleveland errors to tally twice more and take the lead permanently, 4-3. Final Score: Cleveland—3; Taft—4.

EL CAMINO REAL: Tom Gleason turned in a fantastic job of pitching and stopped the Conquistadores for eight innings before his team mates could come up with a run in the extra frame. Gleason struck out an incredible fourteen batters, while allowing only one hit. Cavalier hits were scarce, too, but they finally put something together in the eighth inning. Phil Barnes proved to be a one-man wrecking crew, as he hit a slow roller to shortstop, which he beat out for his second hit of the game. With Brett Steele at the plate, Barnes stole second and took third as the catcher's throw rolled into center field. Steele then responded with a fly to right field, allowing Barnes to tag-up and score. Phil sprained his ankle jumping over the catcher's tag, but the sophomore center fielder scored the run which gave Cleveland a tough victory over the new Conquistadores from El Camino. Final Score: Cleveland—1; El Camino Real—0.

Best of Luck
Dave Preciado

The ten men pictured below comprise the starting lineup for the 1969 Cavalier Varsity Baseball squad. Doing the mound chores this season are two of the best pitchers in the city. Junior Tom Gleason and returning letterman Bill Randolph continued to baffle opposing hitters through early season play. On the receiving end of these two, is one of the scrappiest catchers in the league, Brett Steele. Guarding the line at first is Rich Replogle, who was a second team choice in the All-League voting in '68. Across the diamond at third is Jim Fenwick, who is a dangerous steal threat when he gets on the basepaths. The double-play combo this year is made up of junior Brian Wines at second base and returning letterman Dan Brown at shortstop. Both boys have fine gloves and can be counted on to get that needed base hit. Patrolling the outfield, the Cavaliers have two returning lettermen and a sophomore. Center field is covered by sophomore Phil Barnes and he is flanked by junior Randy Jones in left and senior Jim Anderson in right. These three boys have rifle arms and carry equally potent power at the plate, as all three are knocking the cover off the ball. This rounds out the starting team for Cleveland and it looks to be one of the best ever.

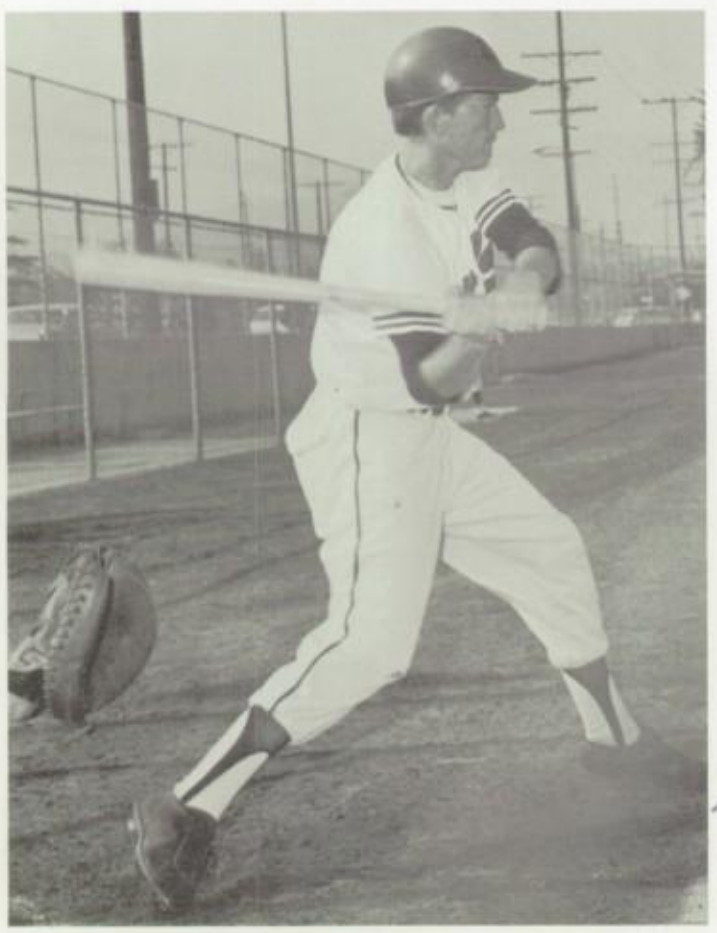
Varsity Baseball—Swingin' And Flingin'

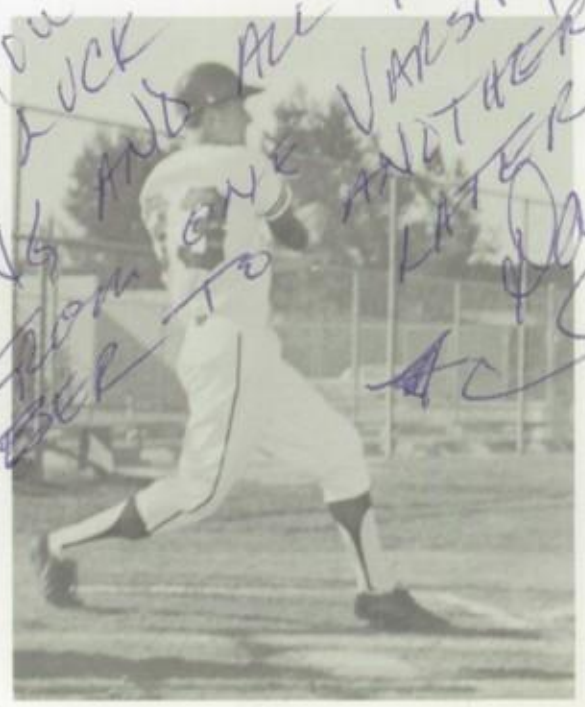
Left: Junior third-sacker Jim Fenwick belts out a hit to aid Cleveland in their 14-2 rout against Hollywood.

Right: Second-baseman Brian Wines, another junior who will be returning next year, comes up throwing after grabbing a grounder off the bat of a Reseda Regent in Cleveland's first league encounter.

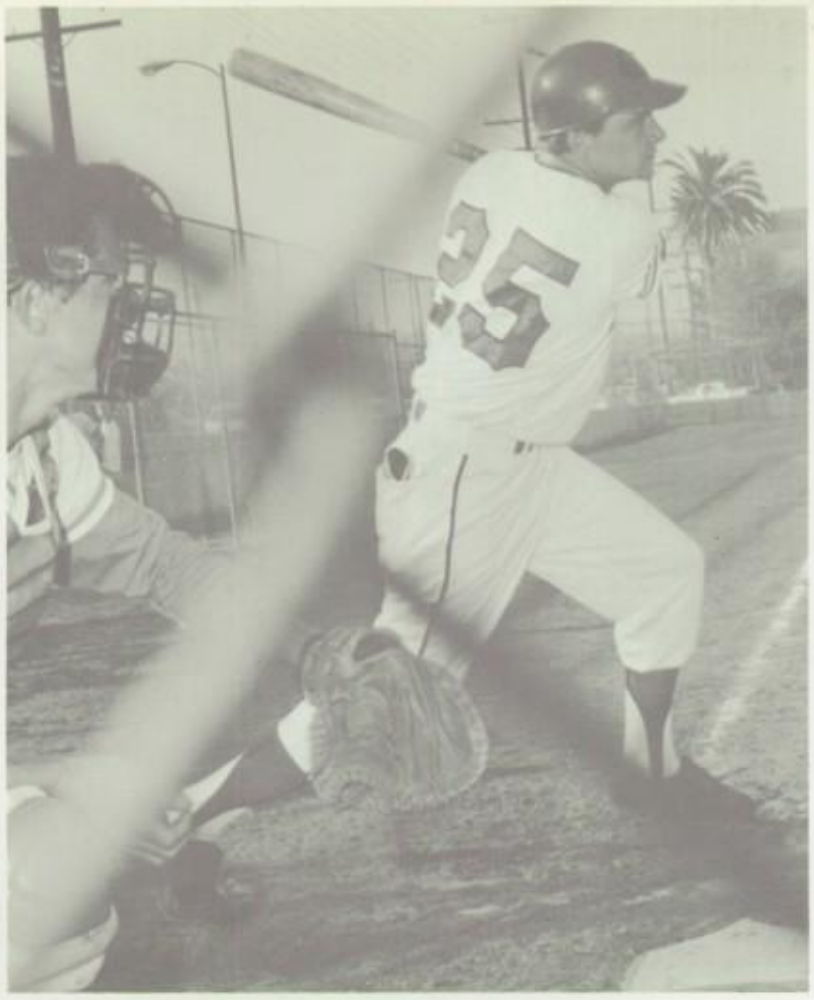
Right: Returning letterman Brett Steele puts a halt to a North Hollywood runner trying to score. Steele, a tough catcher, changes his mind just as Cleveland changed any ideas the Huskies had of winning. Final Score: Cleveland—7; North Hollywood—5.

Below: Sophomore Phil Barnes shows the style which makes him the man to look out for at the plate. A consistent hitter now, Barnes has two more years to go and should be even better then.





Senior Dan Brown, a returning letterman, doubles up the middle to drive in the Cavaliers' first league run of the year. Cleveland went on to score twice more and won their first league game over Reseda, 3-0.



Left: Jim Anderson rips a line shot to center in the contest against Chatsworth. Anderson was a pitcher for the Varsity last season, but his hitting is so great this year that he has switched to the outfield where he can play more often.

Right: Bill Randolph, another returning pitcher, fires a strike past a weary Wolf from Van Nuys. Randolph pitched magnificently and the Cavaliers handed Van Nuys a 5 to 1 loss.

Right: Rich Replogle makes a fine stretch to nip a driving Chancellor at first. Replogle was a regular on last year's squad and won the Varsity batting championship.

Below: Junior Randy Jones lashes out a single to knock in Cleveland's second and third runs in the Cavalier's 4-2 win over the Chancellors at Chatsworth.

Fireballing junior Tom Gleason shoots down another Regent hitter. Tom shut-out Reseda in the Cavaliers first league victory.

Junior Varsity Baseball

Cleveland Varsity Track 1969

Cleveland's 1969 Track Team featured a fine group of returning lettermen and tenth and eleventh grade Varsity newcomers. This mixture of veterans and fresh talent made for an exciting, well-rounded team. The Cleveland tracksters had all the ingredients with veteran long-distance running and sprints, plus new stars in such field events as broad jump and shot put. In the short sprints, our team was lead by Larry Hausam, Darrell Suarez, Steve Marquez, and Jim Martinez. These runners gave us a quick dash and relay squad. In the hurdles, Bill Barnes was our team's stand-out. The long-distance runners were led by such veterans as Bill Ehrecke, Glen Hitchborn, Mike Boyce, and Bill Kaelin. This group gave us a strong quartet in such events as the 880, mile, and two-mile. In the high jump pit, senior Albert Hill used his jumping ability to earn many valuable points. Eleventh grader Paul Rolfzen, contributed his skills by being Cleveland's number one long jumper. Probably the finest performer on this year's squad was pole-vaulter Allen Sauck. Early in the season, Sauck vaulted 14-6. This height ranked Sauck second in the city in the pole-vault. The biggest surprise of the season was marked by the emergence of Chuck Wilson as Cleveland's top shot putter. Only a tenth-grader, Wilson launched the shot for a distance of 52-4 in one of the early season meets. With help from Joe Lupton, it looked like an outstanding year in the shot put category. It looked like a successful season for Coach Cromwell and Coach Kurtz. With the team spirit that all Cleveland teams display, and the many talented young men on the team, it is evident that the 1969 track squad will be tough contenders for the West Valley crown.

Albert Hill skies over the bar in our meet against Sylmar.

Cheered on by Cleveland's cheerleaders, Bill Kaelin is shown in the process of passing an opponent.

Big and brawny, Joe Lupton gets set for one of his lengthy puts.

Darrell Suarez shows his exceptional speed in a relay against league opponents.

Speedy Jim Martinez shows the acceleration that has placed him first in many races.

Allen Sauck, Cleveland's all-time great pole vaulter, displays the form that made him one of the City's best vaulters.

Glen Hitchborn shows the grim determination that made him such a fine half-miler.

Bill Ehrecke, completely out-running his opponents, crosses the finish line in the mile competition.

Eyes set on the finish line, Steve Marquez strides toward another victory for our relay team.

Wilson grits his teeth and prepares to let fly to a great 50 foot put. Wilson, a tenth-grader, was this year's top shot putter.

One of the finest legs of our relay team was Terry Cookson.

Coach Ernie Contreras

This year's gymnastic squad showed great promise in the early season by winning their first three meets. The Cavalier musclemen scored decisive victories by beating Verdugo Hills 86-34, Sylmar 87-33, and taking their first league meet from Reseda 73-47. Although losing to Chatsworth, Coach Contreras figures to finish high in the tough West Valley and have fine representation in the city-finals.

This year's team was led by consistent point getters Bob Cottle on rings and parallels and Larry Wilson on rings. Backing them up and giving the squad great depth are Ron Lemus and Rick Lewis on the long horse, free exercise and tumbling with Lemus also competing on the parallels. Rope climbers this year include Jim and John Zimmerman and Mark Williams. With able point winners, Dick Larson on the side horse, Jim Martinez long horse, Allen Sauck high bar, and Larry Lyons parallels, long horse and rings, this year's gymnasts should make a fine showing for the Cavaliers of Cleveland High.

Strength and Agility

Junior Larry Lyons holds a perfect L-sit in his parallel bar routine which won him first place in the Sylmar pre-season meet.

Going clockwise from the upper left, Bob Taylor performs on the high bar during the Cavaliers' conquest of Sylmar, 87-33. Ron Lemus, who competes in four events including tumbling, free exercise, long horse and parallels, does a handstand on the latter during the Sylmar meet. Charlie Richards, a consistently good competitor, does a high scissor in his side horse routine. While timer Pat Mahoney, ex-Cavalier gymnastics great, watches, Bob Rehberg eyes the "tamborine" while zooming up the rope.

This year's Varsity swim team, under the guidance of Coach Schofield, is looked forward to a successful season. Led by juniors, Mike Suhd, Richard Dryer, Tom Franklin and seniors Bill Frohmberg and Pete Cosmakos, our strong aquamen looked good in pre-season meets. Other impressive Cavaliers were Jon McConnel, Mike Frasier and Mike Williams. Our team showed great skill in variety of strokes, the strongest being the butterfly and freestyle.

The 1969 version of the Cleveland Bee team was led by Jim Palmer, Pete Cosmakos, and Kevin Baral. The team was well balanced in all events and from the onset, the team looked forward to a winning season. Top prospects for the future are Rob Courtney, Dave Lasker, and Jon McConnel.

The nine man Cee squad is a fine group of Bee and Varsity prospects. Early in the season, the squad had already shown remarkable progress and team effort in all categories.

After getting off to a fine start by downing Verdugo Hills, our tennis teams were evidently looking forward to an excellent season. Led by such players as Andy Montano, Jerry Henderson, Jeff Levin, and Byron Reynolds, our team had some of the best individual players ever to attend Cleveland. With Arnie Leckman's fine guidance as coach, and a lot of individual effort, our team won many matches this season.

Cleveland Varsity Golf 1969

The 1969 Golf Team was probably the best squad of players at Cleveland in many years. Led by Kelly Crone, Rick Bogle, Bob Jacobi, and Mark Correlli, our team defeated their first two foes Sylmar and El Camino 23½ to 3½ and 29½ to 6½, respectively. This year's team included many tenth and eleventh graders which will keep up the high caliber of golfers at Cleveland in years to come.

Fall G.A.A. 1968

On September 26, 1968, the fall semester of G.A.A. got underway with its semi-annual Welcome Party. Registration for the various sports was held, following speeches to acquaint female Cavaliers with the semester's program. This fall's sports included bowling, touchdown, basketball, and tennis. After sign-ups, chocolate cake and punch were offered.

G.A.A. gives girls the chance to compete athletically, emphasizing physical fitness, as well as good sportsmanship. Cavaliers learn and practice the fine points of various sports. Under the supervision of the girls' P.E. teachers, everyone is encouraged to strive for excellence in an activity. If a girl attends without absences in excess of three she receives G.A.A. credit.

Highlighting the season was the G.A.A. and Lettergirls' Award Banquet. Recognition of winning teams and announcement of outstanding girls were featured in the program. And, as each new Lettergirl was announced, she received her sweater and a congratulatory kiss from a Varsity Letterman.

Spring G.A.A. 1969

The spring semester of the Girls' Athletic Association got underway with the traditional welcome party, at which girls were able to enroll in tennis, volleyball, tumbling, softball, or marching. In all the sports, girls were offered the chance to compete for interscholastic, team, or individual honors. This year's G.A.A. program offered a new scope in girls' athletics. Participants in the team sports were allowed to compete on select occasions with girls from other schools. The performance of these girls was something of which Cleveland can be proud.

For the first semester in Cavalier history, G.A.A. sponsored a marching class. Under the direction of Miss Yvonne Sarns, girls learned to march and execute routines like those performed by our "Number One" Drill Team. The training supplied by this program is of great help when girls try out for Drill Team. The marching group also served the school by supplying marching units for the Girls' League Assembly.

Students Experience Picadilly Circus Daily

By Ray Terry

The lunch area is a fine example of the superfluous originality of the eating habits of the American individual. Crowds of gangling boys in cord pants and clouds of sugars covered giggles mingle to discuss an ominous subject, the new cafeteria milk rule. (Milk is no longer $.06, it is $.06½, and those students without correct change must furnish their own cow.)

Huge lines, forming or ending, as it may be at windows where food is rationed out, are the general makeup of the feeding system. The students get into these lines immediately after a bell rings, apparently waiting for something, then stand there until another bell rings. The lines offer an excellent opportunity for the students to mix with their co-workers.

The Letterman a most fascinating creature, is com- [illegible] and before you can say "Joe Athlete" that one letterman has divided and multiplied into a dozen strong and smiling red sweaters, all at the head of the line. Isn't nature amazing?

Many strange signs adorn the walls and ceiling of the area. One of these reads, "Keep our lunch area clean." These words are gospel to the Cavalier. The Cleveland patriot, who has brought his milk just to keep the American Standard of Living up, even goes so far as to use the milk to wash down the area floors believing, of course, that dirty white cement is the rage.

But, alas, each lunch and nutrition is an isle of agony to the Cavalier, because he is away from what he loves best, his books, his studies, his classes. One can tell by the way he nervously glances to his watch every few moments that he is eagerly awaiting the bell to release. Yes, onward Cavalier! Help

Boys and girls junior service groups are now being formed on campus under the sponsorship and direction of Mr. Francis Edwards.

Students in the group appreciate the things the school has done for them and wish to serve the school in return, states Mr. Edwards.

Although the club has not been formally organized this semester, student members from last semester are carrying out the club duties.

Mr. Edwards is now in the process of checking the attendance and scholastic records of prospective members.

A Little Effort Could Rescue Students From Major Failure

How long has it been since you've stopped and asked yourself, "Am I really making the most of the many opportunities that are offered to me at Cleveland."

Too many students fail to stop and pause a moment and ask themselves this, and when many students finally do, it is usually too late. Many seniors wish they had the chance to get back to the 10th grade and start fresh. Only this time picking helpful courses that will later be beneficial in seeking entrance to a university.

Many students take homemaking or industrial drawing rather than a solid. This is fine except that they continue miscellaneous classes here and there, and when the end of their senior year rolls around they look back and see a jumble of different classes which supposedly constitute a major.

Graduation Requirements Raised To 170 Credits

Students beginning high school this fall will be required to have 170 credits, as the minimum for graduation, if they are college preparatory, while others will be required to have at least 150 credits.

Basic graduation requirements for all students include four semesters of English, five semesters of social studies, two semesters of math, one semester of biology, two semesters of a laboratory science, such as physiology, chemistry, or physics, one semester of practical arts, one semester of fine arts, six semesters of physical education including health, ½ semester of driver education, and ½ semester of guidance.

Guidance is a new class offered to tenth graders to help them get started on the right foot in high school. The course in guidance consists of orienting the new student to Cleveland by acquainting him with the important buildings and various offices and explaining some of the Cleveland traditions. Included in guidance is a course in personal hygiene to help the student understand the changes that are taking place in them both mentally and physically in adjust...

Administrative Examples Of

"Good morning Cavaliers. This is Miss Hofer at the console" was the cheery greeting Cleveland students received every morning from our outstanding principal. Miss Johanna Hofer, Cleveland's chief administrator since February, 1967, is the key figure in the policies that make Cleveland "Number One" in every way. An enthusiastic booster of Cleveland spirit, Miss Hofer was an inspiring figure at sports events and assemblies.

Miss Dorothy Rakestraw, Cleveland's Girls' Vice Principal, serves as the efficient sponsor of Ladies, in addition to her administrative duties. Female Cavaliers respect her for her charm, wit, and wisdom.

Serving as Boys' Vice Principal, Mr. James DeFrates is a hard-working Cleveland official. Congenial and spirited, he is admired by the male population for his honest opinions. In addition to his numerous school duties, Mr. DeFrates is also the sponsor of Knights.

Counseling, checking, constantly helping, and meeting the needs of our 3,000-member student body, our administrators are an outstanding team of dedicated Cavaliers.
